Copyright Office,1947 Things and Stuff Tibor Kiss,Francis Jeffry Pelletier,Halima Husić,2021-06-10 A classical viewpoint claims that reality consists of both things and stuff and that we need a way to discuss these aspects of reality This is achieved by using count terms to talk about things while using mass terms to talk about stuff Bringing together contributions from internationally renowned experts across interrelated disciplines this book explores the relationship between mass and count nouns in a number of syntactic environments and across a range of languages It both explains how languages differ in their methods for describing these two fundamental categories of reality and shows the many ways that modern linguistics looks to describe them It also explores how the notions of count and mass apply to abstract nouns adding a new dimension to the countability discussion With its pioneering approach to the fundamental questions surrounding mass count distinction this book will be essential reading for researchers in formal semantics and linguistic typology Plurality, Conjunction and Events P. Lasersohn,2013-03-09 Plurality Conjunction and Events presents a novel theory of plural and conjoined phrases in an event based semantic framework It begins by reviewing options for treating the alternation between collective and distributive readings of sentences containing plural or conjoined noun phrases including analyses from both the modern and the premodern literature It is argued that plural and conjoined noun phrases are unambiguously group denoting and that the collective distributive distinction therefore must be located in the predicates with which these noun phrases combine More specifically predicates must have a hidden argument place for events the collective distributive distinction may then be represented in the part whole structure of these events This allows a natural treatment of collectivizing adverbial expressions and of pluractional affixes it also allows a unified semantics for conjunction in which conjoined sentences and predicates denote groups of events much like conjoined noun phrases denote groups of individuals Daily Racing Form Chart Bppl ,1957 Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States.
