Lobbying

Reconsidered Gary Andres, Paul Hernnson, 2015-11-17 Lobbying Reconsidered Politics Under the Influence reveals how lobbying is a complex process that involves more than just relationships friends access favors and influence This book offers a broader perspective on this important dimension of American public policymaking As a person who straddles the worlds of Washington insider and interest group scholar author Gary Andres hopes to use his experience and insight in in the lobbying world to help readers navigate beyond the conventional wisdom and guide them to a deeper broader understanding

The Politics of Affect and Emotion in Contemporary Latin American Cinema L. Podalsky, 2015-12-11 This book explores the role of emotion and affect in recent Latin American cinema 1990s 2000s in the context of larger public debates about past traumas and current anxieties To address this topic it examines some of the most significant trends in contemporary Latin American filmmaking

The Cambridge Companion to the United States Constitution Karen Orren, John W. Compton, 2018-03-22 This Companion provides a broad historically informed introduction to the study of the US constitutional system In place of the usual laundry lists of cases doctrines and theories it presents a picture of the constitutional system in action with separate sections devoted to constitutional principles organizational structures and the various legal and extra legal actions through which litigators and average citizens have attempted to bring about constitutional change Finally the volume covers a number of subjects that are rarely discussed in works aimed at a general audience but which are critical to ensuring that constitutional rights are honored in the day to day lives of citizens These include standing and causes of action suits against officeholders and the inner workings of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court FISC This Companion places present day constitutional controversies in historical context and offers insights from a range of disciplines including history political science and law
