Love Without Measure Extracts From The Writings Of St Bernard Of Clairvaux:

Love Without Measure Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 1990 In 1090 St Bernard of Clairvaux a monk of the Cistercian order was born One of the great figures of his age he travelled and preached widely Cistercian abbeys were founded all over Europe He left many writings which included his famous treatises on humility on the love of God on grace and free will and his masterpiece on the Song of Songs It is from these writings that this collection is drawn Here we see not only a compassionate thoughtful man not only a scholar devoted to the Bible and to the works of the Fathers but a Christian of extraordinary vision and faith To him God's healing power God's love and our acceptance of our own weakness were central to the message of Christ Love Without Measure brings this message newly alive to us today in timeless words that reach across the centuries

Bell,1992 The Monastic Rule of Iosif Volotsky Saint Iosif (Volot[s]kii),2000 The life and Rule of Iosif Volotsky 1439 1440 1515 reveal many of the contradictory forces at work within the medieval muscovite church and Russian monasticism social reform amid noble privilege monastic austerity bounded by a despotic social structure Non possessor reformers might advocate the renunciation of monastic villages and peasants universal manual labor and hesychastic prayer but Iosif defended liturgical formalism and the retention of lands and privileges as safeguards of monastic life First published in 1983 this first English translation of Iosif's rule has been revised to include in full both versions of Iosif's legislation the Brief Rule and the Extended Rule Bibliography and notes have also been expanded to incorporate new scholarship some of it stemming from the recent remarkable revival of the Russian Orthodox Church

Eros and Allegory Denys Turner, 1995 Monks and priests male celibates have for centuries described expressed and celebrated their love for God in the language of sex most prolifically and characteristically in a thousand year tradition of theological commentaries on the scriptural Song of Songs As their allegory for the intimate love between God and man they chose the most intense human model available erotic love After analyzing the tradition its logic and its imagery Denys Turner provides translations of a dozen medieval commentaries never before available in English From Gregory the Great in the sixth century to John of the Cross in the sixteenth lovers of God speak in their own words across a thousand years a message as compelling today as it was in the Middle Ages

Grace Can Do More André Louf, 2002 Spiritual accompaniment patient listening and honest openness has become widespread among Christians of many traditions in recent years Is this modern application of an ancient discernment of spirits the best way for individual persons and groups of Christians to be formed as the People of God Can anyone today accompany another person's spiritual experience without a sound knowledge of psychology Do spiritual accompaniment and psychological therapy overlap Can one replace the other Should an accompanist also be a therapist as some have suggested Writing from his years of experience in a cistercian monastery in which spiritual accompaniment is a living tradition the author reflects on some first steps towards answering these questions

The Commendation of Faith Baldwin (Archbishop of Canterbury), 2000 Using the techniques of nascent scholasticism the author recommends faith as the foundation of our relationship with God and with neighbour His approach has all the precision of scholasticism but not its style Expecting those endowed with reason to use it he urges them to explore God's self revelation in Scripture Each brief chapter inexorably leads to the next and by its solid logical progression he demonstrates that the careful and judicious use of reason does not destroy faith but instead strengthens and confirms it
