and Charles M Rosenberg      Art and Reform in the Late Renaissance Jesse M. Locker, 2018-08-14 Drawing on recent research by established and emerging scholars of sixteenth and seventeenth century art this volume reconsiders the art and architecture produced after 1563 across the conventional geographic borders Rather than considering this period a degraded afterword to Renaissance classicism or an inchoate proto Baroque the book seeks to understand the art on its own terms By considering artists such as Federico Barocci and Stefano Maderno in Italy Hendrick Goltzius in the Netherlands Antoine Caron in France Francisco Ribalta in Spain and Bartolomeo Bitti in Peru the contributors highlight lesser known reforms of art from outside the conventional centers As the first text to cover this formative period from an international perspective this volume casts new light on the aftermath of the Renaissance and the beginnings of Baroque      Art and Architecture in Spain and Portugal and Their American Dominions, 1500 to 1800 George Kubler, Martin Soria, 1959      Art Books Wolfgang M. Humanism and Christian Letters in Early Modern Iberia (1480-1630) Alejandro Coroleu, 2010-05-11 Even though humanism derived its literary moral and educational predilections from ancient Greek and Roman models it was never an inherently secular movement and it soon turned to religious questions Humanists were of course brought up with Christian beliefs regarded the Bible as a fundamental text and many of them were members of the clergy either regular or secular While their importance as religious sources was undiminished biblical and patristic texts came also to be read for their literary value Renaissance authors who aspired to be poetae christianissimi naturally looked to the Latin Fathers who reconciled classical and Christian views of life and presented them in an elegant manner The essays offered in this volume examine the influence of Christian Latin literature whether biblical patristic scholastic or humanistic upon the Latin and vernacular letters of the Iberian Peninsula in the period 1480 to 1630 The contributions have been organized into three thematically coherent groups dealing with transmission adaptation and visual representation Contrary to most studies on the Iberian literature of the period in which practically no essays are devoted to texts other than in Spanish this volume successfully accommodates authors writing in Portuguese and Catalan Likewise a significant part of the pieces presented here is concerned with literary texts written in Latin Moreover it shows how the interests and preoccupations of the better known authors of the Iberian Renaissance were also shared by contemporary figures whose choice of language may have resulted in their exclusion from the canon
