Driving with Dvor?_k Fleda Brown Jackson, 2010-01-01 All our lives are made of moments both simple and sublime all of which in some way partake of the cultural moment Fleda Brown is that rare writer who in narrating the incidents and observations of her life turns her story by wit and insight and a poet s gift into something more This is an unconventional memoir A series of lyrical essays about life in a maddeningly complex family during the even more maddeningly complex fifties and sixties it adds up to one woman s story while simultaneously reflecting the story of her times A strange and erratic

father a resigned and helpless mother a mentally disabled brother a sister with a brain tumor folded into Brown's reflections are the intimacies and ambivalences of family and marriage girlhood and adolescence identity and self knowledge Whether reflecting on the automobile industry or a wrenching parting from beloved pets or the process of aging Brown's telling rings with great humor profound perception and a lyricism that makes even the most commonplace moment uncommonly good reading

The Kremlinologist Jenny Thompson, Sherry Thompson, 2018-03-01 An Owl in a Hawk's World Top diplomat Llewellyn E Thompson was everywhere the Cold War was Winner of the New Mexico Arizona Book Award for Best Biography Winner of the New Mexico Arizona Book Award for Best Biography Against the sprawling backdrop of the Cold War The Kremlinologist revisits some of the twentieth century's greatest conflicts as seen through the eyes of its hardest working diplomat Llewellyn E Thompson From the wilds of the American West to the inner sanctums of the White House and the Kremlin Thompson became an important advisor to presidents and a key participant in major global events including the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Yet unlike his contemporaries Robert S McNamara and Dean Rusk who considered Thompson one of the most crucial Cold War actors and the unsung hero of the Cuban Missile Crisis he has not been the subject of a major biography until now Thompson's daughters Jenny and Sherry Thompson skillfully and thoroughly document his life as an accomplished career diplomat. In vigorous prose they describe how Thompson joined the Foreign Service both to feed his desire for adventure and from a deep sense of duty. They also detail the crucial role he played as a negotiator unafraid of compromise. Known in the State Department as Mr Tightlips, Thompson was the epitome of discretion. People from completely opposite ends of the political spectrum lauded his approach to diplomacy and claimed him as their own. Refuting historical misinterpretations of the Berlin Crisis, the Austrian State Treaty and the Cuban Missile Crisis, the Thompsons tell their father's fascinating story. With unprecedented access to Thompson's FBI dossier, State Department personnel files, letters, diaries, speeches and documents, and relying on probing interviews and generous assistance from American and Russian archivists, historians and government officials, the authors bring new material to light, including important information on the U-2, Kennan's containment policy and Thompson's role in US covert operations machinery. This unique and monumental biography not only restores a central figure to history, it makes the crucial events he shaped accessible to a broader readership and gives contemporary readers a backdrop for understanding the fraught United States-Russia relationship that still exists today.

Murder in The Smokehouse (Auguste Didier Mystery 7) Amy Myers, 2013-10-24. The seventh Auguste Didier mystery. Late in 1901 Auguste Didier and his Russian bride Princess Tatiana are visiting the Yorkshire seat of the Tabor family for a banquet the King has promised to attend. Determined that tobacco will not sully her priceless tapestries, Lady Priscilla Tabor dispatches gentlemen who wish to smoke to a gloomy Gothic folly which has been allotted for this unseemly purpose. Even His Majesty the King is no exception to the intransigent Lady Tabor's rules. Unfortunately for her ladyship, Tatiana is curious both about the smokehouse and about the filthy habit indulged within its walls. In the middle of the night Auguste finds himself unceremoniously hauled from his bed by his wife to inspect the body she has just discovered there. Once again Didier is forced reluctantly to play detective; there are many secrets to be revealed and questions asked. Is this a case of suicide or murder? And even more important, who is the corpse?
