Christ Jesus, the True Israel Brent E. Parker, 2024-01-11 What is the relationship between the nation of Israel Jesus Christ and the church Pastors and theologians come to significantly different conclusions The reigning systems of evangelical theology covenant theology and dispensationalism answer this question by stressing the continuity of the Israel church relationship covenant theology or emphasizing discontinuity dispensationalism In more recent times progressive covenantalism has emerged as a via media between these two theological approaches by providing a different proposal for unpacking the biblical covenants and by highlighting that to rightly understand the people of God in biblical theology the person of Jesus Christ must be the focal point In Christ Jesus the True Israel Brent E Parker presents the case for the importance of typology in this debate arguing that national Israel is a type not unlike other Old Testament types e g the sacrificial system the temple etc that reaches its antitypical fulfillment in Jesus Christ Moreover the Israel church relationship is also typological but only through Christ Parker demonstrates that the progressive covenantal approach is a viable system of theology that seeks to preserve what the whole Bible says regarding the people of God from Israel to Christ and from Christ to the church

Howard,2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God s transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God s glory to the broader creation this literature is often characterized by inflamed rhetoric Further though it is standard fare to assume that Kline was the architect of the project in reality there has been very little scholarly examination of this point In response Kline s system is analyzed through the means of a dialectical discourse with three differing models within the Reformed tradition the Theonomist Perspectivalist and Dooyeweerdian schools Through this means the study keeps away from surface level polemics and instead directs readers to the critically important substructural level of current discussions While clarifying some of the key differences between Kline and his interlocutors often overlooked points of nuance are also highlighted These points are shown to be important in that they present the potential to lessen frustration and impasse in the ongoing dialogue
