New Epicurean And Adventures Of A Schoolboy:

The New Epicurean and Adventures of a Schoolboy Grove/Atlantic, Incorporated, 1984-10 The New Epicurean Edward Sellon, 1969 The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1986 The Victorian Underworld Donald Thomas, 2014-09-18 Donald Thomas introduces us to the slums and fetid courtyards of nineteenth century London and in doing so provides a sweeping portrait of the vast world that did not accept Victorian Values The villainy is outstanding It is also entertaining The author has a practised eye for the best anecdotes and presents amazing characters some of whom come equipped with names that sound positively Dickensian a wonderful profile of Victorian London The Spectator A Long Time Burning Donald Thomas, 2024-12-06 Censorship of the written word has proved a constant source for debate and argument To cut or not to cut is a question with a long and fascinating history First published in 1969 A Long Time Burning is an account of the political religious and moral censorship of literature in the context of English literary history It is principally concerned with the evolution of a modern pattern of censorship between the abolition of licensing in 1695 and the late Victorian period The author outlines the motives and methods of censorship illustrating these by more detailed discussion of such cases as those involving Edmund Curll John Wilkes Thomas Paine William Hone Richard Carlile William Dugdale and Henry Vizetelly The unofficial trade in banned books and the campaigns of the Proclamation Society the Society for the Suppression of Vice and the National Vigilance Association are described with the aid of some previously unpublished material The book includes an anthology of illustrative material quoting extracts from publications banned at various times and for various reasons Pages from such books as Venus in the Cloister are reprinted for the first time in more than two centuries while the other documents range from the Blasphemy Act of 1698 to a prosecution brought under the Race Relations Act of 1965 Books in Print , 1991 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1898 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record , 1898 Library Journal , 1984 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Antiquarian Bookman , 1953 The 19th Century Underworld Stephen Carver, 2018-10-30 Underworld n 1 the part of society comprising those who live by organized crime and immorality 2 the mythical abode of the dead under the earth Take a walk on the dark side of the street in this unique exploration of the fears and desires at the heart of the British Empire from the Regency dandy s playground to the grim and gothic labyrinths of the Victorian city Enter a world of gin spinners sneaksman and Covent Garden nuns where bare knuckled boxers slog it out for dozens of rounds children are worth more dead than alive and the Thames holds more bodies than the Ganges This is the Modern Babylon a place of brutal poverty violent crime strong drink pornography and prostitution of low neighborhoods and crooked houses with windows out like broken teeth wraithlike urchins with haunted eyes desperate ruthless and vicious men and the broken remnants of once fine girls a grey bleak infernal place where gaslights fail to pierce the pestilential fog and coppers travel in pairs if they venture there at all Combining the accessibility of a popular history with original research this book brings the denizens of this vanished world once more to life along with the voices of those who sought to exploit imprison or save them or to simply report back from this alien landscape that both fascinated and appalled the politicians the reformers the journalists and above all the storytellers from literary novelists to purveyors of penny dreadfuls Welcome to the 19th century underworld
