Breaking the Appalachian Barrier John Hrastar,2018-03-12 In 1750 the Appalachian Mountains were a formidable barrier between the British colonies in the east and French territory in the west passable only on foot or horseback It took more than a century to break the mountain barrier and open the west to settlement In 1751 a private Virginia company pioneered a road from Maryland to Ohio challenging the French and Indians for the Ohio country Several wars stalled the road which did not start in earnest until after Ohio became a state in 1803 The stone paved Cumberland Road from Cumberland Maryland to Wheeling Virginia was complete by 1818 and over the next 30 years was traversed by Conestoga wagons and stagecoaches The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad the first general purpose railroad in the world started in Baltimore in the 1820s and reached Wheeling by 1852 uniting east and west

An Overview of Historical and Socio-economic Evolution in the Americas Alberto Ciferri,2019-08-09 This book includes concise descriptions of the history of 28 nations on the American continent and focuses on features that hinder authentic development particularly ethnic or class conflicts and wealth distribution Its purpose is to stimulate an appreciation of history and cultural values thus reinforcing the harmony of social relations Essential elements of history economics and sociology are presented in a plain and easily readable form allowing the book to be directed to a non specialized audience of individuals and students at the bachelors level in both developed and developing countries The leadership of new generations will need to consider new development models based on balanced compromises between economic and technological progress and the most basic aspirations of society Each chapter includes a brief presentation of data on the territory and the ethnic composition and current socio economic situation of a particular American nation They also provide a scholarly description of the main historical events and end with a brief insight into how the successes or difficulties of the individual country relate to cultural and historical events and to the evolution of that country s national identity or indeed identities
