Analytical Essays on Music by Women Composers: Concert Music, 1960-2000 Laurel Parsons, Brenda Ravenscroft, 2016-03-18 Over the past 30 years musicologists have produced a remarkable new body of research literature focusing on the lives and careers of women composers in their socio historical contexts But detailed analysis and discussion of the works created by these composers are still extremely rare This is particularly true in the domain of music theory where scholarly work continues to focus almost exclusively on male composers Moreover while the number of performances broadcasts and recordings of music by women has unquestionably grown these works remain significantly underrepresented in comparison to music by male composers Addressing these deficits is not simply a matter of rectifying a scholarly gender imbalance the lack of knowledge surrounding the music of female composers means that scholars performers and the general public remain unfamiliar with a large body of exciting repertoire
