New Guide to Popular Government Publications for Libraries and Home Reference Walter L. Newsome, 1978    A Guide to Popular Government Publications for Libraries & Home Reference Linda C. Pohle, 1972    The Reference Book Collection of the Conference Information Center, 1979    Administration of Government Documents Collections Rebekah M. Harleston, Carla J. Stoffle, 1974    Building Library Collections Arthur Curley, Dorothy M. Broderick, 1985 A classic Topics include resource sharing networks the importance of nonbook formats the greater complexity of censorship challenges and the expansion of the library's informational role    Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers Christine Gehrt Wynar, 1973    Subject Guide to Major United States Government Publications Wiley J. Williams, American Library Association, 1987    American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Wyner, 1979-04 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering    Reference Sources for Small and Medium-sized Libraries American Library Association. Ad Hoc Committee for the Fourth Edition of Reference Sources for Small and Medium-sized Libraries, Jovian Lang, Deborah C. Masters, 1984    Using Government Publications: Finding statistics and using special techniques Jean L. Sears, Marilyn K. Moody, 1985 Basic reference to the use of United States government documents Sources and search strategies are covered    U.S. Government Publications for the School Media Center Alice J. Wittig, 1979    Social Science Reference Sources Tze-chung Li, 1980    Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974    Introduction to United States Public Documents Joe Morehead, 1983 The purpose of this text is to set forth an introductory account of the basic sources of information that comprise the bibliographic structure of federal government publications Like the previous editions the work serves as a reference source for institutions that acquire public documents as a text for library school students as a guide for researchers who must access the vast amount of information produced by or for the federal establishment The emphasis remains a contemporary one the reader is encouraged to consult other historical or specialized studies for more detailed information Pref    Dictionary Catalog of the National Agricultural Library, 1862-1965 National Agricultural Library (U.S.), 1967    The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1886    Reference Services Review, 1973    Opportunities for Reference Services William A. Katz, 1991 Here is a refreshing new book that takes a unique look at the many aspects of reference librarianship Written by reference librarians for reference librarians this new volume explores the changing roles of reference services and offers advice and practical ideas to guide librarians through the increasingly tangled maze of duties being thrust upon the reference staff Although the everyday work of the reference librarian is often taken for granted these insightful chapters illuminate the essential service performed by the reference librarians as they facilitate access to information for a wide variety of users Furthermore this book helps reference librarians face the future by examining the technological and service developments that will challenge their profession Opportunities for Reference Librarians addresses unique reference problems such as making use of the telephone as an information gathering tool selecting reference material for the interdisciplinary field of Health Physical Education and Recreation HPER and helping non law students with legal research The fascinating anecdotes and encouraging discussions will be invaluable to reference library professionals for years to come This important book covers a wide variety of topics of interest to reference librarians Topics related to information systems are examined such as the limitations of end user online services and an evaluation of the Library of Congress Information system Authoritative contributors make recommendations on how to design services to coordinate with the new technology and how to change librarians roles so they can assist people in using these systems      Subject
