

My handprint

Here is my handprint,
Five fingers in all,
Outside they are short,
But the middle is tall,

You will find them on windows,
You can find them on the wall,
They will make a big mess,
For something so small.

One day I will grow,
And leave them no more,
My hand prints will be missed,
Of that, I am sure.

So here is one now,
That you can't wipe away.
My present to you,
This Mothers' Day.

New Hand Poems:

The New Hand Sean Gillihan, 2002      Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book's final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950's Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections      The Complete Poems R. Rebholz, Thomas Wyatt, 2015-07-30 As a diplomat in Renaissance Europe and a luminary at the court of Henry VII Sir Thomas Wyatt wrote in an incestuous world where everyone was uneasily subject to the royal whims and rages Wyatt had himself survived two imprisonments in the Tower as well as a love affair with Anne Boleyn and his poetry that of an extraordinarily sophisticated passionate and vulnerable man reflects these experiences making disguised reference to current political events Above all though Wyatt is known for his love poetry which often dramatizes incidents and remembered conversations with his beloved with an ear acutely sensitive to patterns of rhythm and colloquial speech Conveying the actuality of betrayal or absence and the intense pressure of his longing for a love that could be trusted these are some of the most haunting poems in the English language All New Hands
