Kideckel, 2019-03-07 This book focuses on communities in the east European transition and the diverse issues which people face in them on a daily basis It is organized around three themes economic change and privatization the transformation of social and political organization and changing community belief system

Peasants And Power Joan Sokolovsky, 2019-05-28 Focusing on events in Hungary and Poland from 1948 to 1962 Dr Sokolovsky shows why collectivization can best be understood as an element in state building for the new regimes of Eastern Europe For these countries policy options were constrained by dependence upon the Soviet Union and the economic demands of a newly industrializing society Econom East Central Europe Lawrence D. Orton, 1989 Parallel Lives

Calin Goina, 2024-12-15 This book explores the articulation between macro social historical transformations and the opportunities and constraints that the resultant political and property regimes presented for villagers It builds on ethnographic analyses of rural Eastern Europe by adding an historical analysis of the configurations and reconfigurations of life trajectories across three successive generations The villagers studied lived a succession of property and political configurations democratic and authoritarian regimes grounded in free market and private property until 1947 a totalitarian regime of state socialism until 1989 and a liberal democracy re building a free market economy from 1990 until today It also brings forward an empirical exploration of the concept of generation grounded on a re reading of Karl Mannheim The book is distinctive in its historical breath covering a century via a detailed rich ethnographic study that includes a diversity of social positions from the richest members of the community to those of very poor means and a diversity of three ethnicities and religions Communism Unwrapped Paulina Bren, Mary Neuburger, 2012-09-20 Communism Unwrapped is a collection of essays that unwraps the complex world of consumption under communism in postwar Eastern Europe featuring new work by both American and European scholars writing from variety of disciplinary perspectives The result is a fresh look at everyday life under communism that explores the ways people shopped ate drank smoked cooked acquired exchanged and assessed goods These phenomena the editors argue were central to the way that communism was lived and experienced in its widely varied contexts in the region Consumption pervaded everyday life far more than most other political and social phenomena From design to production to retail sales and black market exchange Communism Unwrapped follows communist goods from producer to consumer tracing their circuitous routes In the communist world this journey was rife with its own meanings shaped by the special political and social circumstances of these societies In examining consumption behind the Iron Curtain this volume builds on a new field of study It brings dimension and nuance to our understanding of the communist period and a new perspective to our current analyses of consumerism Privatization in Rural Eastern Europe David Turnock, 1998

Focuses on a major challenge facing countries in Eastern Europe the creation and maintenance of jobs in the agricultural sector The work argues that future employment may depend on the completion of the privatization process as well as improved efficiency and market opportunity      The Postsocialist Agrarian Question C. M. Hann, 2003 This is an age of neo liberalism in which the advantages and virtues of private property are often taken for granted Post socialist governments have privatized and broken up state farms and socialist cooperatives However economic outcomes and the social insecurity now experienced by many rural inhabitants highlight the need for a broader anthropological analysis of property relations which go beyond changes of legal form A century after Kautsky addressed The Agrarian Question in Germany it is necessary to address a post socialist Agrarian Question throughout Central and Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union and China The studies collected here derive from the first cycle of projects carried out at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology They are prefaced by a substantial introduction by Chris Hann Chris Hann is Director of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology Halle Saale      A Scandal in Tiszadomb Marida Hollos, 2016-07-08 This fascinating book tells the story of modern Hungarian society through the interconnected lives of several families in a small town on the Great Hungarian Plain It opens in 1989 on the eve of communism s collapse with the suicide of the town s dynamic and popular mayor The author quickly sketches in the details of the small scandal that precipitated the mayor s shocking act Amazingly enough this small scandal in a small town became a sensation in the Hungarian national press during the months leading up to the fall of the regime It was seen to typify the corruption of national life under the communist system Following this prologue each of the three parts of the book tells the story of one of the families over the course of the last century and through that family history the story of one of the social groups making up the community The ups and downs of each family are tied not only to the strengths and weaknesses of its individual members but also to the twists and turns of East European history and the vagaries of politics under changing political regimes and economic systems At the end of the book the author revisits the town in 1998 and the surviving characters and tells of their fate in the new Hungary      The Hungarian Agricultural Miracle? Zsuzsanna Varga, 2020-11-09 This book examines Soviet agriculture in post 1945 Hungary It demonstrates how the agrarian lobby a development following the 1956 revolution led to contact with the West which allowed for the creation of an effective agricultural system The author argues that this Hungarian agricultural miracle a hybrid of American technology and Soviet structures was fundamental to the success of Hungarian collectivization      Scandal in a Small Town Marida C. Hollos, 2015-02-12 Part of ASPA Classics series this book compiles various contributions to the theory and practice of performance measurement that have been published in various journals affiliated with the American Society for Public Administration This book includes methods and techniques for developing effective performance measurement systems      Post-Socialist Peasant? D. Kaneff, 2001-12-03 During the past decade life in post socialist states has been fraught with instability and conflict This book focuses on changing rural urban relations and growing divisions between them in the context of the reforms Contributions to this volume explore responses to capitalist oriented policies and reasons for rural disenfranchisement The work takes an ethnographic approach to exploring how global processes engage with local rural concerns in the post socialist world      Does East Go West? Christian Giordano, Francois Ruegg, Andrea Boscoboinik, 2014

Does East Go West examines the study of post socialism from an anthropological perspective These social systems have posed a challenge to anthropological theory that has been the subject of lively exchanges for over 20 years now Can post socialism as a concept adequately apply to the current situation in Eastern Europe One of the answers proposed here is that specific elements derived from postcolonial studies may prove very useful in analyzing Eastern Europe s post socialist countries Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Freiburger Sozialanthropologische Studien Etudes d Anthropologie Sociale de l Universite de Fribourg Vol 38      Transforming Peasants, Property and Power Dorin Dobrinicu, Constantin Iordachi, 2009-06-15 The result of a project initiated and coordinated by Gail Kligman and Katherine Verdery research for this volume was conducted by a group of twenty anthropologists historians sociologists and literary critics from Romania United States and Great Britain Employing interdisciplinary methods and using a wealth of previously unexplored archival and oral sources the authors managed to produce the most solid monograph to date on the process of collectivization in Romania Book Jacket      The Global Debate Over Constitutional Property Gregory S. Alexander, 2011-07-29 Countries around the world are heatedly debating whether property should be a constitutional right But American lawyers have largely ignored this debate which is divided into two clear camps those who believe making property a constitutional right undermines democracy by fostering inequality and those who believe it provides the security nec      Hungary in the Twentieth Century Ignác Romsics, 1999      New Hungarian Peasants Marida Hollos, Bela C.
