New Jerusalem Myth Literature And The Sacred:

New Jerusalem Nancy Tenfelde Clasby, 2000 New Jerusalem links the archetypal images of modern literature with ancient myth and ritual In this collection of essays on American Literature Nancy Clasby shows that the primary forms shaping premodern consciousness rise still with undiminished force structuring modern poetry and fiction Our literature is a vast echoing house of symbols comprising the sacred space of the modern world Archetypes of death and rebirth indelibly inscribed in human consciousness find fresh expression in contemporary writing The lost Eden and the heavenly Jerusalem are symbols that speak in a perennial language of modern writing and revealing the deep relationship between consciousness and the forms of the sacred God, the Bible, and Human Consciousness N. Clasby, 2008-05-12 This study offers a reading that avoids both literalism and sociological reductionism through a study of the Bible's intricate patterns of imagery It will appeal to thoughtful people dissatisfied with the religious status quo and looking for a new intellectual starting point

Rhizomes Nathalie Ramière, Rachel Varshney, 2021-02-19 This volume Rhizomes is a challenging path into a very multidisciplinary set of papers Papers range across cultural studies and film to applied linguistics to sociolinguistics and as gathered in this one volume the result of postgraduate student research of a very high order they force readers to think critically of disciplines their assumed boundaries and most importantly the usefulness of assuming the enduring value of such boundaries This is not to say that anything goes but the diversity of areas under scrutiny means that sharper re thinking of one's own comfort zones is necessarily one key outcome when confronted with a volume like this This is one advantage of the selected papers besides the obvious one of having at your finger tips a simple way of delving into a challenging diversity Brian Ridge Campion College Sydney This is a wonderful collection of papers which demonstrates the power and vitality of contemporary literary and cultural research The scope of the papers the diversity of the subject matter and the willingness of their authors to work across disciplinary boundaries work together to create an exemplary collection of research for the twenty first century multidisciplinary multigeneric and multimodal like 21st century texts and media Greg Hainge's opening paper sets the stage for the diverse and engaging papers that follow With his own examples of rhizomatics drawn from music Greg immediately has the reader acknowledging the multidisciplinary and multimodality of contemporary texts and so the need for research that can address the richness and complexity of these texts In Part 1 we have two papers that address the issue of the limitations of conventional research methodology in their own fields language acquisition film studies and propose alternative and more productive methodologies The exciting thing about this section is that these are fields normally considered very different and without much to say to one another and yet the combination works to create a dialogue that extends across these and many other fields of research Most importantly both challenge the dichotomising of research and analytical methods that has worked to impoverish their fields and the research on which it is based Part 2 presents papers on a range of marginalised social positionings and experiences and in the process demonstrates both the power of research to uncover what has been ignored or elided in contemporary histories how many westerners know of the long history of Chinese women in film Or of an Aboriginal Taiwanese literature as well as the power of new perspectives new ways of thinking the research subject to open up areas of study such as dating manuals and country music both conventionally dismissed as inherently trivial and or sexist In Part 3 the papers all play brilliantly with the notion of connectivity demonstrating for readers the inextricability of texts and meaning systems verbal visual and other with the cultural contexts in which they operate and so the diverse ways they may be deployed These papers banish forever any reliance on a formalist reading or methodology for the analysis of text and meaning And again the range of subject matter is breath taking and argues the need for cross disciplinary transdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research practice Part 4 takes the reader into the realm of transformations challenging the ways in which textual and systemic changes articulate profound cultural changes in the societies that produce them So we learn about grammatical interventions in the Chinese language as feminine and neuter pronouns are added to the gender free Chinese language and consider the major cultural change that both caused this change and is subsequently produced by it We consider the ways in which cinema has evolved as an art form under the influence of its material and verbal technologies And we consider the ways in which Chinese poetry has entered a range of cultural practices in the west and the east and again consider how its traditional meanings and significance are maintained and communicate to these new contexts and the nature of the transcultural experience this generates For the academic student or interested reader this collection offers a breath taking scope of subject matter and a vital and engaged approach to the material that makes this collection a research page turner Professor Anne Cranny Francis Department of Critical and Cultural Studies Macquarie University Sydney

The Thirty Years' War and German Memory in the Nineteenth Century
Kevin Cramer, 2007-12-01 The nineteenth century witnessed the birth of German nationalism and the unification of Germany as a powerful nation state In this era the reading public's obsession with the most destructive and divisive war in its history the Thirty Years War resurrected old animosities and sparked a violent century long debate over the origins and aftermath of the war The core of this bitter argument was a clash between Protestant and Catholic historians over the cultural criteria determining authentic German identity and the territorial and political form of the future German nation This groundbreaking study of modern Germany's morbid fascination with the war explores the ideological uses of history writing commemoration and collective remembrance to show how the passionate argument over the meaning of the Thirty Years War shaped Germans conception of their nation The first book in the extensive literature on German history writing to examine how modern German historians reinterpreted a specific event to define national identity and legitimate political and ideological agendas The Thirty Years War and German Memory in the Nineteenth Century is a bold intellectual history of the confluence of history writing religion culture and politics in nineteenth century Germany
