Tipton, John Witte Jr., 2005-11-18 Statistics on the American family are sobering From 1975 to 2000 one third of all children were born to single mothers and one half of all marriages ended in divorce While children from broken homes are two to three times more likely to develop behavioral and learning difficulties two parent families are not immune to problems The cost of raising children has increased dramatically and married couples with children are now twice as likely as childless couples to file for bankruptcy Clearly the American family is in trouble But how this trouble started and what should be done about it remain hotly contested In a multifaceted analysis of the current state of a complex institution Family Transformed brings together outstanding scholars from the fields of anthropology demography ethics history law philosophy primatology psychology sociology and theology Demonstrating that the family is both distinctive in its own right and deeply interwoven with other institutions the authors examine the roles of education work leisure consumption legal regulation public administration and biology in shaping the ways we court and marry bear and raise children and make and break family bonds International in approach this wide ranging volume situates current American debates over sex marriage and family within a global framework Weighing mounting social science evidence that supports a continued need for the nuclear family while assessing the challenges posed by new advocacy for same sex marriage and delegalized coupling the authors argue that only by reintegrating the family into a just moral order of the larger community and society can we genuinely strengthen it This means not simply upholding traditional family values but truly grasping the family's growing diversity sustaining its coherence and protecting its fragility for our own sake and for the common good of society      Contemporary Perspectives

Approach For Cultural Change Marc Levitt,2017-05-17 Marc Levitt's A Holistic Approach for Cultural Change Character Education for Ages 13 15 asks educators to consider how our contemporary curriculum and pedagogy supports isolation and competition rather than our goals for school culture change Mr Levitt explores themes such as vengeance prejudice communications in relationships trapping oneself in past behaviors respecting one's heritage and learning to embrace one's own story through his original stories Suggestions for curriculum and pedagogical changes follow helping educators share the larger personal and social implications of Mr Levitt's stories while teaching and demonstrating how we are All in it Together A Holistic Approach for School Based Culture Change Character Education for Ages 13 15 helps educators build a caring and socially intelligent community of students in a way that is neither preachy nor condescending acknowledging and encouraging our mutuality of interests The Sunshine Door Seth Kinstle, People spend their lives dancing around the flames of their desire But what if you had everything and experienced all life had to offer Would you reach an end Or would there be something to keep you going when it seems so pointless Everyone lives life the way they want to but few of us ever actually break free from who we are There's so much controversy simultaneously blinding us it can be hard to define reality If you ever bring everything into focus maybe you're just going to be on the wrong side of a good day no matter what you do Maybe there's more to the randomness life throws our way or maybe all we do is rest on a pending death Step into the sunshine door and see what life has in store for you Maybe it's better to never know what's going to happen but you might be left with nothing more than a bland routine Either way I guess you're going to have to conclude the tragedy of your life
