Black Literate Lives Maisha T. Fisher, 2008-12 Black Literate Lives offers an innovative approach to understanding the complex and multi dimensional perspectives of Black literate lives in the United States Author Maisha Fisher reinterprets historiographies of Black self determination and self reliance to powerfully interrupt stereotypes of African American literacy practices The book expands the standard definitions of literacy practices to demonstrate the ways in which minority groups keep their cultures and practices alive in the face of oppression both inside and outside of schools This important addition to critical literacy studies Demonstrates the relationship of an expanded definition of literacy to self determination and empowerment Exposes unexpected sources of Black literate traditions of popular culture and memory Reveals how spoken word poetry open mic events and everyday cultural performances are vital to an understanding of Black literacy in the 21st century By centering the voices of students activists and community members whose creative labors past and present continue the long tradition of creating cultural forms that restore collective Black Literate Lives ultimately uncovers memory while illuminating the literate and literary contributions of Black people in America

Places of Invention Arthur P. Molella, Anna Karvellas, 2015-09-15 The companion book to an upcoming museum exhibition of the same name Places of Invention seeks to answer timely questions about the nature of invention and innovation What is it about some places that sparks invention and innovation Is it simply being at the right place at the right time or is it more than that How does place whether physical social or cultural support constrain and shape innovation Why does invention flourish in one spot but struggle in another even very similar location In short Why there Why then Places of Invention frames current and historic conversation on the relationship between place and creativity citing extensive scholarship in the area and two decades of investigation and study from the National Museum of American History's Lemelson Center for the Study of Invention and Innovation The book is built around six place case studies Hartford CT late 1800s Hollywood CA 1930s Medical Alley MN 1950s Bronx NY 1970s Silicon Valley CA 1970s 1980s and Fort Collins CO 2010s Interspersed with these case studies are dispatches from three learning labs detailing Smithsonian Affiliate museums work using Places of Invention as a model for documenting local invention and innovation Written by exhibition curators each part of the book focuses on the central thesis that invention is everywhere and fueled by unique combinations of creative people ready resources and inspiring surroundings Like the locations it explores Places of Invention shows how the history of invention can be a transformative lens for understanding local history and cultivating creativity on scales of place ranging from the personal to the national and beyond

The New Chicago John Patrick Koval, 2006 For generations visitors journalists and social scientists alike have asserted that Chicago is the quintessentially American city Indeed the introduction to The New Chicago reminds us that to know America you must know Chicago The contributors boldly announce the demise of the city of broad shoulders and the transformation of its physical social cultural and economic institutions into a new Chicago In this wide ranging book twenty scholars journalists and activists relying on data from the 2000 census and many years of direct experience with the city identify five converging forces in American urbanization which are reshaping this storied metropolis The twenty six essays included here analyze Chicago by way of globalization and its impact on the contemporary city economic restructuring the evolution of machine style politics into managerial politics physical transformations of the central city and its suburbs and race relations in a multicultural era In elaborating on the effects of these broad forces contributors detail the role of eight significant racial ethnic and immigrant communities in shaping the character of the new Chicago and present ten case studies of innovative governmental grassroots and civic action Multifaceted and authoritative The New Chicago offers an important and unique portrait of an emergent and new Windy City
