

A desert landscape with a dirt road leading towards mountains under a cloudy sky. The text is overlaid on the image.

I close my eyes to old ends.
And open my heart to new beginnings.

New Ends Old Beginnings Poems:

New Ends, Old Beginnings Louise Ho, Shew-wan Ho (Louise), 1997 Critical Zone 3 Douglas Kerr, Q.S. Tong, Shouren Wang, 2009-02-01 Despite globalizing forces whether economic political or cultural there remain conspicuous differences that divide scholarly communities How should we understand and respond to those discursive gaps among different traditions and systems of knowledge production Critical Zone is a book series in cultural and literary studies that is concerned with current critical debates and intellectual preoccupations in the humanities The series aims to improve understanding across cultures traditions discourses and disciplines and to produce international critical knowledge Critical Zone is an expression of timely collaboration among scholars from Hong Kong mainland China the United States and Europe and conceived as an intellectual bridge between China and the rest of the world The second volume of Critical Zone as does its predecessor consists of two parts The first part includes original essays that deal with the concept and practice of empire as a collective response to the question of how imperial formations and operations in the past and at present should be examined in a larger context of international politics and how historical imperialism may be considered in relation to the conditions of our time Part II includes two sets of translations of essays first published in Chinese about two recent debates in China one on the canonicity of Lu Xun and the other on the problem of how to reform Peking University in the context of globalization These two groups of translations are led by review essays that contextualize the debates The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024-03-03 The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes is the first reference work of its kind to describe both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia SEA Since the arrival of English traders to Southeast Asia in the seventeenth century the English language has had a profound impact on the linguistic ecologies and the development of societies throughout the region Today countries such as Singapore and the Philippines have adopted English as a national language while in others such as Indonesia and Cambodia it is used as a foreign language of education The chapters in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in SEA The volume is divided into six parts that investigate respectively historical and contemporary English contact in SEA the structures of the Englishes spoken in different SEA nations the English language literatures of the region approaches to English in education throughout the region and resources for researching SEA Englishes The handbook will be an invaluable reference work for students and researchers in areas as diverse as contact linguistics English as a Foreign Language world Englishes and sociolinguistics Postcolonial Poetry in English Rajeev S. Patke, 2006-06-15 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series general editor Elleke Boehmer offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English Postcolonial Poetry in English provides a comprehensive introduction to the development of English poetry in all the regions that were once part of the British Empire The idea of postcolonial poetry is held together by three factors the global community constituted by English the creative possibilities accessible through English and patterns of literary development common to regions with a history of recent decolonization In showing how diverse poetic traditions in English evolved from dependency to varying degrees of cultural self confidence the book answers two broad questions how is postcolonial studies relevant to the interpretation of poetry and how does poetry contribute to our idea of postcolonial writing The book is divided into three parts the first works out a method of analysis based on recent publications of outstanding interest the second narrates the development of poetic traditions in Asia Africa and the Caribbean and the settler colonies of Canada South Africa Australia and New Zealand the third analyses key motifs such as the struggle for minority self representation the cultural politics of gender modernism and postmodernity and the experience of migration and self exile in contemporary Anglophone societies Postcolonial Poetry in English provides a succinct and wide ranging introduction to some of the most exciting poetic writing of the twentieth century It is ideally suited for readers interested in world writing in English contemporary literature postcolonial writing cultural studies and postmodern culture The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English Rajeew S. Patke, Philip Holden, 2009-09-10 The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English traces the development of literature in the region within its historical and cultural contexts establishing connections from the colonial activity of the early modern period through to contemporary writing across nations such as Thailand China Malaya Singapore and Hong Kong Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Moving Poetry Shirley Geok-lin Lim, Page Richards, 2001-11-01 One book to be read two ways A delightful collection of children s poems Ideas on inspiring creativity in young people 160 children took part in poetry writing workshops led by a group of Hong Kong s foremost poets Their poems shed an intriguing light on life in Hong Kong seen by a new generation This anthology has a particular significance for parents and teachers It shows that using English freely and creatively is an important step towards full command of the language The poet editors convey the fun of this venture and explain the techniques used to encourage the children s natural creativity Their essays provide a source of ideas for teachers interested in exploring creative writing Another section of poems by the poet teachers and undergraduate assistants drawn from the creative writing classes at the University of Hong Kong provides added pleasure for the poetry lover This collection showcasing the talents of budding young Hong Kong poets projecting their powerful and diverse voices into the future is for people who enjoy poetry and for those who wish to nurture the natural creativity of children Beautiful poems an admirable project Kenneth Koch Professor of English and Comparative Literature at Columbia University author of Wishes Lies and Dreams From a uniquely vibrant place where ancient cultures coincide with one another and with our planet's future comes this collection of poems energetic surprising direct subtle in a word moving The volume brings together the fundamental art of poetry and the transforming spirit of youth Robert Pinsky Professor of English at Boston University Poet Laureate of the United States 1997 2000 Moving Poetry is an ambitious and heartening collection sometimes funny sometimes melancholy invariably expert It proves once again the value of encouraging young people to stretch their imaginations and proves how great is the benefit to us all Andrew Motion Professor of Creative Writing at the University of East Anglia Poet Laureate of Great Britain

Selected Literary Essays 1984-2025 Rajeev Patke, 2025-09-28 The book consists of a selection of journal articles and book chapters presented at many international conferences and published in academic journals and books from the UK the US India Japan Europe and Singapore

City Voices Michael Ingham, Xu Xi, 2003-03-01 City Voices is the first showcase of postwar Hong Kong literature originating in English Fiction poetry essays and memoirs from more than 70 authors are featured to demonstrate the rich variety and vitality of the city's literary production Together with work from established authors both bilingual writers who choose to write in English and expatriate authors who have made Hong Kong their home a section of New Voices introduces the work of unknown and young writers who are part of today's surge of new creativity

City at the End of Time 廖亦男 Ping-kwan Leung, 2012-06-01 Written by Leung Ping kwan in the 1980s and 1990s this volume of poetry evokes the complexity of Hong Kong city life in the critical moments preceding the 1997 handover The poet muses upon the problems of cultural identity and the passing of time and explores the relationship between poetry and other genres and media within a cross cultural and cross border context An introduction by Ackbar Abbas in the original edition relates Leung's writing to the cultural and political space of Hong Kong in the 1990s This expanded bilingual version adds a new essay by Esther Cheung and also a recent conversation between Leung and three critics which provides insights on how Leung's poetry still resonates powerfully after two decades The book invites readers to look afresh at Leung's meditative poetry and probe into the contradictory realities of this changing postcolonial city
