Torkelson, 1995-12-01 Researchers of medicinal plants often find unfamiliar references to herbs when reading through ethnobotanical literature Very often they are familiar with the plant but not with the name used in a given context This book eliminates the time consuming task of further research by providing 28 000 common names of medicinal plants in a single source International in scope this unique reference allows matching of scientific and common names through a comprehensive cross index The first volume is organized alphabetically by scientific name while the other two volumes are a cross index by common name Phylum order and family are also provided as well as the language of the common name which helps to identify its geographic location A Handbook and Grammar of the Tagalog Language William Egbert Wheeler MacKinlay, 1905 Bulletin of the Philippine Library National Library (Philippines), 1912 Monthly Bulletin of the Philippine Library and Museum National Library (Philippines), 1912 Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente, 2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language Translanguaging and English as a Lingua Franca in the Plurilingual Classroom Anna Mendoza, 2023-03-09 This book explores multilingual practices such as translanguaging code switching and stylization in secondary classrooms in Hawai i Using linguistic ethnography it investigates how students in a linguistically diverse class including those who speak less commonly taught languages deal with learning tasks and the social life of the class when using these languages alongside English as a lingua franca It discusses implications for teachers from balancing student needs in lesson planning and instruction to classroom management where the language use of one individual or group can create challenges of understanding participation or deficit identity positionings for another The book argues that students must not only be allowed to flex their whole language repertoires to learn and communicate but also be aware of how to build bridges across differences in individual repertoires It offers suggestions for teachers to consider within their own contexts highlighting the need for teacher autonomy to cultivate the classroom community's critical language awareness and create conducive environments for learning This book will appeal to postgraduate students researchers and academics working in the fields of sociolinguistics and linguistic ethnography as well as pre service and in service teachers in linguistically diverse secondary school contexts Filipinas Magazine ,2005 The Tagalog Language Constantino Lendoyro,1909
