New Glass Review 6:

New Glass Review 32 Corning Museum of Glass, 2011 New Glass Review , 2002 Neues Glas in Japan Yoriko Mizuta, Birgid Monschau-Schmittmann, Atsushi Takeda, 1993 American Glass Review , 1909 Stephen Rolfe Powell Stephen Rolfe Powell, 2007-10-12 This definitive volume vividly chronicles the glass artist's remarkable work and unique methods as they evolved over the course of his career. Internationally renowned glass artist Stephen Rolfe Powell created his work in a quiet outpost of rural Kentucky. The radiant murrini skins of his glass vessels have an old Italian pedigree yet his techniques were radically American in their dramatic individuality. He stood among modern glass's most nuanced explorers of light and color. The stunning photographs in this book showcase Powell's work from different viewpoints highlighting the unique interactions of transparent, opaque, and translucent glass and Powell's bold color combinations. Photographic close-ups detail the luminous murrini patterns that became Powell's signature, revealing new ways of appreciating the complex interplay of color and texture in his art. Biographical and analytical essays by Mark Lucas, Laurie Winters, and James Yood explore Powell's unique team-based process, his teaching and learning experiences on the road from the former Soviet Union to Salt Lake City during the Olympics, and the two freak injuries that deeply affected his approach to his work. Reflections by Kenn Holsten, Marvin Lipofsky, Dante Marioni, Bonnie Marx, John Roush, and Lino Tagliapietra further supplement the book.

Journal of Glass Studies , 2004 Nick Mount Tony Hanning, 2013-03 Nick Mount is one of the world's leading glass artists. In his sixtieth year, he was honoured with a major exhibition in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as well as the Object Living Treasure Award. This book, written in the style of an extraordinary yarn, is not so much about Nick Mount's achievements as a glass artist as it is about the elements that have shaped his career and continue to inform his work. His philosophy, work ethic, and environment, peers, and family have all been factors in his work and success. Together, they form the fabric of his work. Nick Mount has received numerous awards, including the Bavarian State Prize in Germany, an Australia Council Fellowship, and the Arts SA Triennial Project Grant. He acknowledges the honour of being able to work with his hands and has enormous gratitude for a lifetime of assistance from Dr and Mrs G J Mount, Pauline Hugo Peta, and Pip Nick Mount. The Fabric of Work is richly illustrated with photographs of Nick's pieces, including many made recently. These vibrant works range from the extraordinary flamboyant scent bottles to more recent wood and glass fruit pieces that reflect a lush quietude. Tulip
