A New History of Spanish Literature Richard Eugene Chandler, Kessel Schwartz, 1961      A New History of Spanish Literature Richard E. Chandler, Kessel Schwartz, 1991-09-01 First published in 1961 A New History of Spanish Literature has been a much used resource for generations of students The book has now been completely revised and updated to include extensive discussion of Spanish literature of the past thirty years Richard E Chandler and Kessel Schwartz both longtime students of the literature write authoritatively about every Spanish literary work of consequence From the earliest extant writings though the literature of the 1980s they draw on the latest scholarship Unlike most literary histories this one treats each genre fully in its own section thus making it easy for the reader to follow the development of poetry the drama the novel other prose fiction and nonfiction prose Students of the first edition have found this method particularly useful However this approach does not preclude study of the literature by period A full index easily enables the reader to find all references to any individual author or book Another noteworthy feature of the book and one omitted from many books of this kind is the comprehensive attention the authors accord nonfiction prose including for example essays philosophy literary criticism politics and historiography Encyclopedic in scope yet concise and eminently readable the revised edition of A New History of Spanish Literature bids fair to be the standard reference well into the next century      A New History of Spanish Literature, by James Fitzmaurice-Kelly... James Fitzmaurice Kelly, 1926      Revival: A History of Spanish Literature (1930) Ernest Merimee, 2018-05-08 The present English version authorized by the publishers and heirs of M Merimee is based on the third French Edition New material of two sorts has been added however First the translator has been allowed to utilize an annotated interleaved copy of the Precis 1922 in which the author and after his death his son Henri himself a distinguished Hispanist had set down material for the next revision This accounts for many inserted names and phrases and some paragraphs Second the translator has rewritten and added with some freedom      A New History of Spanish Literature James Fitzmaurice-Kelly, 1926      The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies, 2004 Publisher Description      A New History of Spanish Literature [by] Richard E. Chandler [and] Kessel Schwartz Richard Eugene Chandler, Kessel Schwartz, 1965      Nine Centuries of Spanish Literature (Dual-Language) Seymour Resnick, Jeanne Pasmantier, 2012-10-31 This rich sampling of Spanish poetry prose and drama includes more than seventy selections from the works of more than forty writers from the anonymous author of the great medieval epic The Poem of the Cid to such 20th century masters as Miguel de Unamuno The original Spanish text of each work appears with an excellent English translation on the facing page The anthology begins with carefully selected passages from such medieval classics as The Book of Good Love by the Archpriest of Hita and Spain's first great prose work the stories of Count Lucanor by Juan Manuel Works by writers of the Spanish Renaissance follow among them poems by the Marquis de Santillana and excerpts from the great dialogue novel La Celestina by Fernando de Rojas Spain's Golden age ca 1550 1650 an era which produced its great writers

is represented by the mystical poems of St Teresa passages from Cervantes Don Quixote and scenes from Tirso de Molina's The Love Rogue the drama that introduced the character of Don Juan to the world along with other well known works of the period A cavalcade of stirring poems plays and prose selections represent Spain's rare literary achievements of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries The translations were chosen for their accuracy and fidelity to the originals Among the translators are Lord Byron Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Edward FitzGerald and John Masefield As a treasury of masterly writing as a guide for the student who wants to improve his or her language skills and as a compact survey of Spanish literature this excellent anthology will provide hours of pleasure and fruitful study

A New History of Spanish Writing, 1939 to the 1990s

Chris Perriam, 2000 A New History of Spanish Writing 1939 to the 1990s explores the diversity of some sixty years of imaginative writing by Spaniards its interactions with Spain's peculiarly dramatic history since the end of its Civil War and its wider thematic significance It covers the famous and canonical texts of the most recent in Modern Spanish literature but also explores areas less well known outside Spain essays and editorials queer narrative new poetry comics and texts of the militant and reactionary Right More space than is usual in literary histories is allowed for commentary on famous texts but the book also makes room for the marginalized and for socially contextualized explorations of the interconnectedness of various forms of writing The overall structure is not chronological but thematic dealing with abstract and topical issues such as silence the family or realism produced in Spain were of poor quality promoted the regime's agenda or were heavily censored. After the dictator's death the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled. Today films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema. The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics. Beginning with movies released after Franco's death this volume documents four decades of films, directors, actresses and actors of Spanish cinema. Offering a comprehensive survey of films, the entries address such topics as art, culture, society and politics. Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading. Through its examination of the films of the post-Franco period this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history, politics and culture. An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas. The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students, academics and the general public alike.

Memory and Trauma in the Postwar Spanish Novel Sarah Leggott, Ross Woods, 2013-12-11. In recent years much Spanish literary criticism has been characterized by debates about collective and historical memory stemming from a national obsession with the past that has seen an explosion of novels and films about the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship. This growth of so-called memory studies in literary scholarship has focused on the representation of memory and trauma in contemporary narratives dealing with the Civil War and ensuing dictatorship. In contrast the novel of the postwar period has received relatively little critical attention of late despite the fact that memory and trauma also feature in different ways and to varying degrees in many works written during the Franco years. The essays in this study argue that such novels merit a fresh critical approach and that contemporary scholarship relating to the representation of memory and trauma in literature can enhance our understanding of the postwar Spanish novel. The volume opens with essays that engage with aspects of contemporary theoretical approaches to memory in order to reveal the ways in which these are pertinent to Spanish novels written in the first postwar decades with studies on novels by Camilo Jos Cela, Carmen Laforet, Arturo Barea and Ana Mar a Matute. Its second section focuses on the representation of trauma in specific postwar novels drawing on elements from trauma studies scholarship to discuss neglected works by Mercedes Salisachs, Dolores Medio and Ignacio Aldecoa. The final essays continue the focus on the theme of trauma and revisit works by women writers namely Carmen Laforet, Rosa Chacel, Ana Mar a Matute and Mar a Zambrano that foreground the experiences of female protagonists who are seeking to deal with a traumatic past. The essays in this volume thus propose a new direction for the study of Spanish literature of 1940s, 1950s and early 1960s enhancing existing approaches to the postwar Spanish novel through an engagement with contemporary scholarship on memory and trauma in literature.
