documents on the history of Western Persia and Iraq in the 11th and 12th centuries This book provides an accessible English translation and commentary on the text making available to a new readership this significant work on the pre modern history of the Middle East and the Turkish peoples The text is a chronicle of the Seljuq dynasty as it emerged within the Iranian lands in the 11th and 12th centuries dominating the Middle Eastern lands from Turkey and Syria to Iran and eastern Afghanistan During this formative period in the central and eastern Islamic lands they inaugurated a pattern of Turkish political and military dominance of the Middle East and beyond from Egypt to India in some cases well into the 20th century Shedding light on many otherwise obscure aspects of the political history of the region the book provides a more detailed context for the political history of the wider area As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Middle Eastern history and is an important addition to the existing literature on the Seljuq dynasty

Islam in American Prisons Hamid Reza Kusha, 2016-12-05 The growth of Islam both worldwide and particularly in the United States is especially notable among African American inmates incarcerated in American state and federal penitentiaries This growth poses a powerful challenge to American penal philosophy structured on the ideal of rehabilitating offenders through penance and appropriate penal measures Islam in American Prisons argues that prisoners converting to Islam seek an alternative form of redemption one that poses a powerful epistemological as well as ideological challenge to American penology Meanwhile following the events of 9 11 some prison inmates have converted to radical anti Western Islam and have become sympathetic to the goals and tactics of the Al Qaeda organization This new study examines this multifaceted phenomenon and makes a powerful argument for the objective examination of the rehabilitative potentials of faith based organizations in prisons including the faith of those who convert to Islam

Early Islamic Iran Edmund Herzig, Sarah Stewart, 2011-11-08 How did Iran remain distinctively Iranian in the centuries which followed the Arab Conquest How did it retain its cultural distinctiveness after the displacement of Zoroastrianism state religion of the Persian empire by Islam This latest volume in The Idea of Iran series traces that critical moment in Iranian history which followed the transformation of ancient traditions during the country's conversion and initial Islamic period Distinguished contributors who include the late Oleg Grabar Roy Mottahedeh Alan Williams and Said Amir Arjomand discuss from a variety of literary artistic religious and cultural perspectives the years around the end of the first millennium CE when the political strength of the Abbasid Caliphate was on the wane and when the eastern lands of the Islamic empire began to be taken on a fresh Persianate or Perso Islamic character One of the paradoxes of this era is that the establishment throughout the eastern Islamic territories of new Turkish dynasties coincided with the genesis and spread into Central and South Asia of vibrant new Persian language and literatures Exploring the nature of this paradox separate chapters engage with ideas of kingship authority and identity and their fascinating expression through the written word architecture and the visual arts

The Politics of Knowledge in Premodern Islam Omid Safi, 2006-01-01 The eleventh and twelfth centuries comprised a period of great significance in Islamic history The Great Saljuqs a Turkish believe that the Koran is God s message in Arabic revealed through the medium of the Prophet Muhammad for the guidance of the Arabs and subsequently for all humanity There is both unity and variety in the Islamic world Muslims are not a homogeneous people who can be explained solely by their normative texts the Koran and the Sunnah Muslims differ vastly in their interpretation of Islam modernists want to reinterpret Islam to adapt to the requirements of modern times while traditionalists tend to look to the classical and medieval periods of Islam as their model of the Islamic state This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Islam contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on major sects schools of theology and jurisprudence as well as aspects of Islamic culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Islam Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al H rith al Muh sib who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abb sids Although al Muh sib was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur n Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib s teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and itjihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal

Calligraphy and Architecture in the Muslim World Mohammad Gharipour,2019-07-30 This major reference work covers all aspects of architectural inscriptions in the Muslim world the artists and their patrons what inscriptions add to architectural design what materials were used what their purpose was and how they infuse buildings with meaning From Spain to China and from the Middle Ages to our own lifetime Islamic architecture and calligraphy are inexorably intertwined Mosques dervish lodges mausolea libraries even baths and market places bear masterpieces of calligraphy that rival the most refined of books and scrolls The Rise of Islam Vesta Sarkhosh Curtis,Sarah Stewart,2009-01-28 This final volume in the successful series The Idea of Iran addresses the astonishing impact made by Islam during and after the Arab conquest of Iran in the middle of the seventh century As the Sasanian dynasty crumbled before the invaders triumphant onslaught its state religion of Zoroastrianism was unceremoniously dismantled to make way for the new faith of the victorious desert warriors Yet why if Iran jettisoned its indigenous religion did it still manage to retain its Persian language and distinctive Iranian identity once Muslim governance took hold These and other intriguing questions are addressed by the book which includes distinguished contributions from world renowned scholars such as Hugh Kennedy Edmund Bosworth Robert Hillenbrand and Ehsan Yarshater Discussing a large variety of subjects which covers the whole spectrum of life in early Islamic Iran the volume offers one of the most ambitious perspectives on Persian religion society and culture to be published to date It will be consulted by all students of Iranian history and will be regarded as essential reading for scholars of Islam the Middle East and medieval religion alike The A to Z of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec,2009 Along with a list of abbreviations and acronyms and a map of the Islamic world a chronology lists important dates from the 6th to the end of the 20th century and an introductory chapter outlines the history of Islam A comprehensive bibliography guides the serious student for further research BOOK JACKET The A to Z of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec,2009-09-02 There is both unity and variety in the Islamic world Muslims are not a homogeneous people who can be explained solely by their normative texts the Koran and the Sunnah Muslims differ vastly in their interpretation of Islam modernists want to reinterpret Islam to adapt to the requirements of modern times while traditionalists tend to look to the classical and medieval periods of Islam as their model of the Islamic state The A to Z of Islam presents a concise overview of Islamic history religion philosophy and Islamic political movements This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries which include the biographies and thoughts of medieval thinkers as well as those of modern members of the religious and political establishments Articles describe the major sects schools of theology and jurisprudence as well as aspects of Islamic culture

Together this book represents a brief introduction to the field of Islamic studies Of Lost Cities Nizar F.

Hermes,2024-11-15 The poetic memorialization of the Maghrib city illuminates the ways in which exilic Maghrib poets constructed idealized images of their native cities from the ninth to nineteenth centuries CE The first work of its kind in English Of Lost Cities explores the poetics and politics of elegiac and nostalgic representations of the Maghrib city and sheds light on the ingeniously indigenous and indigenously ingenious manipulation of the classical Arabic subgenres of city elegy and nostalgia for one's homeland Often overlooked these poems distinctively Maghrib both classical and vernacular and written in Arabic and Tamazight deserve wider recognition in the broader tradition and canon of post classical Arabic poetry Alongside close readings of Maghrib poets such as Ibn Rashīq Ibn Sharaf al-Uṣṣalār Ibn al-ʿAmmār al-Anḥālī Ibn Khamīs Ab al-Faṭṭāḥ al-Tuhmāmī and Ibn al-Shaykh Nizar Hermes provides a comparative analysis using Western theories of place memory and nostalgia Containing the first translations into English of many poetic gems of premodern and precolonial Maghrib poetry Of Lost Cities reveals the enduring power of poetry in capturing the essence of lost cities and the complex interplay of loss remembrance and longing
