New Jersey Churchscape Encountering Eighteenth And Nineteenth Century:

The New Jersey Churchscape Frank L. Greenagel, 2001 Although best known as the Garden State New Jersey could also be called the Church State The state boasts thousands of houses of worship with more than one thousand still standing that were built in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Frank L Greenagel has photographed more than six hundred He has selected two hundred of these historic landmarks for an examination of why they are sited where they are and why they look the way they do Greenagel has sought out and included images of not only mainstream Christian churches but also Jewish synagogues as well as the places of worship of religious groups such as the Moravians the Church of the Brethren and the Seventh Day Baptists The photographs are arranged chronologically within sections on three major early settlement regions of the state the Hudson River the Delaware River and the Raritan Valley For each building Greenagel details the date of construction the cultural historic and religious influences that shaped it the architectural details that distinguish it and what purpose it currently serves

American Colonial History Thomas S. Kidd, 2016-01-01 Conclusion The Crisis of the British Empire in America Notes Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Respectable Methodism Daniel F. Flores, 2023-03-07 The Wesleyan Methodist movement entered American history as a fragment of British Methodism It quickly took on a new identity in the early republic and grew into a vibrant denomination in the nineteenth century The transitions from the rugged pioneer religion modeled by Bishop Francis Asbury to the urbane religion of industrial America was by design the goal of influential leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church Nathan Bangs was perhaps one of the most significant of such leaders He rose from obscurity to the ranks of power and influence by refining patterns of worship expanding denominational publishing and structuring ministerial education This study is concerned with the development of respectability in American Methodism It also explores questions on how Bangs and other leaders dealt with in house conflicts on issues related to race slavery and the poor

Ruptured Landscapes Helen Sooväli-Sepping, Hugo Reinert, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2015-06-15 This volume breaks new ground in the study of landscapes both rural and urban The innovative notion of this landscape collection is rupture The book explores the ways in which societal economic and cultural changes are transforming the meanings and understandings of landscapes The text explores both how landscapes are contesting changes in society and changing society The volume combines empirically fine grained accounts of landscape rupture from different parts of the world with a sustained effort to explore rethink and analytically extend the concept of rupture itself The book therefore combines fresh empirical data with innovative theoretical approaches to open understanding of landscape as a dynamic living entity subject to abrupt change and unpredictable disruptions Through this dual reflection the volume is able to provide a powerful demonstration of the possibilities that are available for human action social change and material landscape to combine
