Michael A. Tomlan, 2014-11-21 This well illustrated book offers an up to date synthesis of the field of historic preservation cast as a social campaign concerned with the condition treatment and use of the legacy of existing properties in the United States Drawing on a wide range of research experience and scholarship over the last fifty years it allows us to re think past and current ideas in preservation challenging readers to explore how their own interests lie within the cognitive framework of the activities taking place with people who care Who is involved is explored first in such a way as to explore why before examining what is deemed important After that the questions of when and how to proceed are given attention The major topics are introduced in an historical review through the mid 1980s after which the broad intellectual basis and fundamental legal framework is provided The economic shifts associated with major demographic changes are explored in tandem with responses of the preservation community A chapter is dedicated to the financial challenges and sources of revenue available in typical preservation projects and another chapter focuses on the manner in which seeing recording and interpreting information provides the context for an appropriate vision for the future In this regard it is made clear that not all green design alternatives are preservation sensitive The advocacy battles during the last few decades provide a number of short stories of the ethical battles regarding below ground and above ground historic resources and the eighth chapter attempts to explain why religion has been long held at arm s length in publicly supported preservation efforts when in fact it holds more potential to regenerate existing sites than any governmental program Guide to U.S. Government Publications John L. Andriot, Donna Andriot, 1979 Forest Service Research Accomplishments ,1976 The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 4, No. 57 IJIP.In, 2016-07-27 It gives me immense pleasure to welcome all to explore publish comment in on our journal The International Journal of Indian Psychology IJIP There are a lot of challenges which the growing psychological face in the realms of basic necessities in life Psychological thoughts can play a very distinct role in bringing about this change One of the key objectives of research should be its usability and application This journal attempts to document and spark a debate on the research focused on psychological research and ideas in context of emerging geographies The sectors could range from psychological education and improvement mental health environmental issues and solution health care and medicine and psychological related areas The key focus would however be the emerging sectors and research which discusses application and usability in social or health context We intended to publish case reports review articles with main focus on original research articles Over objective is to reach all the psychological practitioners who have knowledge and interest but have no time to record the interesting cases research activities and new innovative procedures which helps us in updating our knowledge and improving our treatment Finally I would like to thank RED SHINE International Publications Inc for this keepsake and my editorial team technical team authors and well wishers who are promoting this journals With these words I conclude and promise that the standards policies will be maintained We hope that the research featured here sets up many new milestones I look forward to make this endeavour very meaningful
