Jazz Musicians, 1945 to the Present David Dicaire, 2015-01-27 From its very beginnings the nature of jazz has been to reinvent itself As the musical genre evolved from its roots blues European music Voodoo ceremonies and brass bands that played at funerals parades and celebrations the sound reflected the tenor of the times from the citified strains of the Roaring 20s to the Big Band swing of pre World War II to the bop revolution that grew out of the minimalist sound the war forced upon the art form That the music continued to develop and evolve is a tribute to the power and creativity of its musicians Charlie Parker Thelonious Monk Sarah Vaughan Art Blakey Dave Brubeck Sun Ra John Coltrane Miles Davis Diana Krall Archie Shepp Chick Corea Branford Marsalis Larry Coryell and Kenny Kirkland are just some of the jazz greats profiled here The five major periods of jazz the bop revolution hard bop and cool jazz the avant garde fusion and contemporary form the basis for the sections in this reference work with a brief history of each period provided The artists who were integral to the evolution of each period are then profiled Each biographical entry focuses on the artist s life and his or her influence on jazz and on music as a whole A complete discography for each musician is also provided

Motherhood and Choice Amrita Nandy, 2017-10-02 How can women live fully If autonomy is critical for humans why do women have little or no choice vis vis motherhood Do women know they have a choice if they do How free are these choices in a context where the self is socially mired and deeply enmeshed into the familial What are implications of motherhood on how human relatedness and belonging are defined These questions underlie Amrita Nandy s remarkable research on motherhood as an institution one that conflates woman with mother and personal with political As the bedrock of human survival and an unchallenged norm of normal female lives motherhood expects and even compels women to be mothers symbolic and corporeal Even though the ideology of pronatalism and motherhood reinforce reproductive technology and vice versa the care work of mothering suffers political neglect and economic devaluation However motherhood and non motherhood is not just physiological As the pivot to a web of heteronormative institutions such as marriage and the family motherhood bears an overwhelming and decisive influence on women s lives Against the weight of traditional and contemporary histories socio political discourse and policies this study explores how women as embodiments of multiple identities could live stigma free authentic lives without having to abandon reproductive self determination Published by Zubaan
