Readability: Text and Context Alan Bailin,Ann Grafstein,2016-01-26 This book explores what makes a book readable by bringing together the relevant literature and theories and situating them within a unified account It provides a single resource that offers a principled discussion of the issues and their applications The Psychology of Reading Mildred C. Robeck,Randall R. Wallace,2017-11-06 The need to know why as well as how children and youth respond as they do to reading instruction has guided the selection of this book s content The second edition of this title originally published in 1990 has retained and elaborated upon the three major themes previously presented that reading is a linguistic process that motivation the affective domain may be as important in learning to read as the cognitive domain and that the reality of learning theory is to be found in the mechanisms of the brain where information is mediated and memory traces are stored The text integrates views from cognitive psychology psycholinguistics and neuropsychology as they relate to reading and writing A learning motivation model is provided to present associative learning conceptualization and self directed reading in a hierarchical relationship with distinct cognitive and affective components The distinction between beginning and proficient reading is maintained throughout the text El-Hi Textbooks in Print ,1984 Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
