Power Of Africentric Celebrations:

The Power of Africentric Celebrations Nwaka Chris Egbulem, 1996 This practical guide introduces readers of all denominations to the roots and wings of worship as celebrated in the Afri Zairean experience The Oxford History of Christian Worship Geoffrey Wainwright, 2006 The Oxford History of Christian Worship is a comprehensive and authoritative history lavishly illustrated of the origins and development of Christian worship up to the present day Following contemporary methods in scholarship it attends to social and cultural contexts and examines the worship traditions from both Eastern and Western Christianity ancient and modern It offers a chronological account while encompassing spatial and confessional variations from Baptists in Britain to Roman Catholics in Mexico from Orthodox in Ethiopia to Pentecostals in the United States from Lutheran and Reformed in Europe to united churches in India and Australia The material details of Christian worship such as music architecture and the visual arts are considered within specific cultural contexts throughout the volume as well as studied thematically in individual chapters BOOK JACKET Worship as Community Drama Pierre Hegy, 2019-03-22 Church weddings funerals and most Sunday services reflect the values and dramas of their communities even when the ministers are the main or sole actors This point is illustrated by examples ranging from American television masses to the Zairean three hour services in the Congo Of greatest interest to readers might be the Sunday services at ordinary parishes which also range from friendly but uninspiring to innovative and inviting There are also two exceptionally vital churches analyzed here an evangelical church in the Pentecostal tradition and a social justice parish in the tradition of Martin Luther King Jr Today one can hardly buy an item in a store or on the Internet without being asked for an evaluation yet church services are seldom evaluated There can be no improvement without evaluation This book proposes a method of evaluation in eight steps that must be rigorously scientific and at the same time offer a vision for spiritual growth The prophet Elijah found God in earthquakes and fire but most people find mystery through art music rhythm chanting expressive readings evocative rituals and enlightened homilies Today people expect mystagogy rather than routine performances Mystagogy can be learned and improved through evaluation to which this book desires to make a major contribution The Reception of the Second Vatican Council's Liturgical Reforms in Nigeria (Nsukka Diocese) Uchenna Aba, 2016 Fifty years after the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy a great moment has dawned in which a more dispassionate assessment of the reception of this important document has become imperative in order to enable the Church to undertake necessary steps in realizing the full potential of the renewal envisaged by the Council Fathers The present study identifies peculiar and diverse challenges confronting the process of reception in the Nsukka Diocese Nigerian Church today However the author acknowledges that the full reception of Sacrosanctum Concilium is still a work in progress Uchenna Aba is a Catholic priest in Nsukka Nigeria and currently the Chaplain of St Martin s Parish Goch Diocese of Muenster Germany Dissertation Subject Religious Studies African Studies Joseph Ratzinger and the Future of African Theology Maurice

Learning from All the Faithful

Bradford E. Hinze, Peter C. Phan, 2016-10-31 Do various members of the church regardless of their generation gender race sexual orientation country of origin and whatever their doubts are about official church teachings and policies have any role in determining safeguarding and assessing the authentic teaching and praxis of the faith of the church This has always been a haunting question in the life of the Christian church though only recently acknowledged because of the long standing role of male clergy of European descent with a Eurocentric outlook who held hierarchical offices and determined official doctrines and moral and disciplinary codes There have been controversies that bear on these matters over the course of the church's history But it has only been over the last fifty years that the question has received increasing attention among Roman Catholics in terms of the baptismal anointing of the Spirit that bestows the gift of the sense of the faith on individuals and the collective sense of the faithful This gift provides discerning skills to recognize receive and imaginatively and practically apply the living faith in history and society This book explores these issues from historical sociological systematic and theological ethical perspectives infused by the contributions of world Christianities

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope

Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka Nwaogwugwu, 2011-01-07 The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways At play here is the inculturation of the faith which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed The criterion used is therefore double In the first place the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils In the second place if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below In all this however the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation well known by the author but from the theological ambient of sub-Saharan world The conclusion is positive pondering the terms involved The work can be of great use in the christological endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition. The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ. The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa. Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn, Censor of the thesis Liturgy for the New Millennium Anscar J. Chupungco, Keith F. Pecklers, 2000 Liturgy for the New Millennium The Making of an African Christian Ethics Wilson Muoha Maina, 2016-07-13. An exploration of the development of a contextualized Roman Catholic moral theology in an African context is warranted in our day. This book is a study of the work of Benezet Bujo, an African moral theologian. An analysis of Bujo's work shows the various aspects of an African Catholic moral theology. Bujo's work is viewed here as critically bridging African moral theology and the development of moral theology in the Catholic Church, especially in the West. An African moral theology in this work builds on the elements of the renewal of moral theology after the Second Vatican Council. The renewal elements reflected in Bujo's work and other African Catholic theologians include, among others, the use of Scripture, the relevance of history, the debate on moral norms, the relevance of social sciences to moral discourse, the theory of natural moral law, and the relation between the theologian and the magisterium. This work therefore locates the theology of Bujo in the development of moral theology after the Second Vatican Council. The author establishes a relation between African traditional religions, African history, Christology, natural moral law, moral autonomy, debate, the encyclical Veritatis Splendor, and political liberation, theological ethics. Inculturation of Christian Worship Phillip Tovey, 2019-05-20. Originally published in 2004, Inculturation: the creative and dynamic relationship between the Christian message and culture or cultures is of interest to many churches throughout the world, particularly since the Second Vatican Council made it part of the Roman Catholic agenda. This book looks at the question of the inculturation of Christian worship, particularly in the Eucharist. Looking at the relationship of worship and culture requires insights from both theology and anthropology. Tovey develops the tools to interconnect perspectives into an interdisciplinary exploration of different models of inculturation. Inculturation of Christian Worship is both interdisciplinary and ecumenical in approach. Case studies are drawn from the Ethiopian Orthodox Church, African Independent Churches, The Roman Catholic Church, and the Anglican Communion. While there is a focus on Africa for particular examples, the issues are discussed in a world-wide context. The Forgotten Instruction Kenneth J. Martin, 2007. In The Forgotten Instruction: The Roman Liturgy, Inculturation and Legitimate Adaptations, Father Martin explores the evolution of the Church's theology and practice of inculturation and describes how these insights have influenced the accommodations and adaptations made within the Roman liturgy. Beginning with the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, explaining Pope John Paul II's understanding of the role of inculturation in evangelization, catechesis, and liturgical renewal, and ending with the Fourth Instruction on the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, this work surveys the liturgical developments made in the Roman rite Particular attention is given to the original and subsequent revisions to the Rite of Marriage the Rite of Ordination the Rites of Anointing and Viaticum and the Order of Christian Funerals The Forgotten Instruction also comments on the responsibility that the Church bears in preserving the Roman rite while enabling it to serve its proper role in the transfiguration of cultures and the lives of individuals With tables that break down the areas and reasons for adaptation as well as special considerations about the procedures to be followed in more radical adaptations this book is an informative practical resource that will provide readers with insights into responsible pastoral practice

Inculturation and Postcolonial Discourse in African Theology Edward P. Antonio, 2006 What is inculturation How is it practiced and what is its relationship to colonial and postcolonial discourses In what ways if any does inculturation represent the decolonization of Christianity in Africa This book explores these questions and argues that inculturation is a species of postcolonial discourse by placing it in the larger context of what has now come to be known as Africanism and by showing how the latter and through it inculturation itself fully participates in the history of postcolonial struggles for indigenous self definition in Africa The thirteen contributors to this volume represent a group of young scholars from the southern eastern and western regions of Africa They come from different disciplines theology philosophy and biblical studies Although they take different approaches to the question of inculturation the fact that they engage it at all is illustrative of the methodological significance of inculturation in African theology
