Cook, 1983 This work is a composite index of the complete runs of all mystery and detective fan magazines that have been published through 1981 Added to it are indexes of many magazines of related nature This includes magazines that are primarily oriented to boys book collecting the paperbacks and the pulp magazine hero characters since these all have a place in the mystery and detective genre Raymond Chandler, Romantic Ideology, and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry Anthony Dean Rizzuto, 2021-12-03 Raymond Chandler Romantic Ideology and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry responds to the general consensus that Philip Marlowe represents a chivalric knight out of romance The book argues that this commonplace reading requires a stunningly rosy rewriting of Marlowe knighthood chivalry and romance The book offers a history of the cultural politics of chivalry from the Middle Ages through British Romanticism to the modern United States exposing the elitism violent masculinism racism and ethno national othering harbored within Rizzuto also considers the survival of the chivalric ideology after World War I and argues that the narrative of the Great War destroying chivalry rewrites the ghastly history of warfare Touching on Chandler throughout these cultural histories the book then directly confronts the question of knighthood and romance in the Marlowe novels Rizzuto identifies an explicit rejection of romance in the service of hardboiled gender class and genre norms including a seldom remarked pattern of violence against women and sexual assault The volume concludes by offering some ideas about Chandler s motivations and the reception of the Marlowe novels Lusitania .1994 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction Modern American Literature: A-G Joann Cerrito, Laurie DiMauro, 1999 Presents critical excerpts and 2007 ,2008-02 analyses from a variety of sources that combine to provide overviews of the work of 194 of the most significant authors of the modern period in American literature arranged alphabetically with bibliographies □□□□□□ Stan Allen,1996 Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Archaeologies of the Future Fredric Jameson, 2005 In an age of globalization characterized by the dizzying technologies of the First World and the
