Re Distribution Of Authority A Cross Regional Perspective:

Re-distribution of Authority Jeanie J. Bukowski, Swarna Rajagopalan, 2000-05-30 Bukowski Rajagopalan and their contributors seek to cross both analytical and geographic boundaries in the study of why and how authority shifts both within and beyond the modern nation state They develop a conceptualization of the re distribution of authority that is when the capacity of governmental and societal units involved in carrying out the tasks and responsibilities of governance change over time relative to each other They argue that this is a more comprehensive alternative to extant conceptualizations used to study the shifting of authority such as decentralization regionalism or federalism Nine diverse cases are then presented Pakistan India Sri Lanka the United States Russia Spain Portugal Senegal and South Africa Each case addresses the questions Which are the factors that explain the re distribution of authority Under what conditions are some of these factors more important than others Despite the diversity of the cases in both geographic location and levels of economic and political development four major explanatory factors emerge as common across all nine cases identity related claims economic imperatives considerations of administrative efficiency and political agency Moreover discerning the complex interaction of these factors is necessary in understanding the re distribution of authority in both its centralizing and decentralizing forms across all levels of governance Of particular interest to scholars students and policy researchers involved with international relations comparative politics public administration political development and state formation and ethnonational politics

The Secular and the Sacred William Safran, 2004-08-02 What is the place of religion in modern political systems This volume addresses that question by focusing on ten countries across several geographic areas Western and East Central Europe North America the Middle East and South Asia These countries are comparable in the sense that they are committed to constitutional rule have embraced a more or less secular culture and have formal guarantees of freedom of religion Yet in all the cases examined here religion impinges on the political system in the form of legal establishment semi legitimation subvention and or selective institutional arrangements and its role is reflected in cultural norms electoral behaviour and public policies The relationship between religion and politics comes in many varieties in differing countries yet all are faced with three major challenges modernity democracy and the increasingly multi ethnic and multi religious nature of their societies

Smyrl, 2003 The contributors of this thoughtful book explore the role and influence of political leadership through a rigorous comparative analysis of regional level dynamics in Europe Visit our website for sample chapters John Frith, Scholar and Martyr

State and Nation in South Asia Swarna

Rajagopalan, 2001 What makes a national community out of a state Addressing this fundamental question Rajagopalan studies national integration from the perspective of three South Asian communities Tamilians in India Sindhis in Pakistan and Tamils in Sri Lanka that have a history of secessionism in common but with vastly different outcomes Rajagopalan investigates why integration is relatively successful in some cases Tamil Nadu less so in others Sindh and disastrous in some Sri Lanka Broadly comparative and drawing together multiple aspects of political development and nation building her imaginative exploration of the tension between state and nation gives voice to relatively disenfranchised sections of society

Scotland and Catalonia both ancient nations with strong nationalisms within larger states are exemplars of the management of ethnic conflict in multinational democracies and of global trends toward regional government Focusing on these two countries Scott L Greer explores why nationalist mobilization arose when it did and why it stopped at autonomy rather than statehood He challenges the notion that national identity or institutional design explains their relative success as stable multinational democracies and argues that the key is their strong regional societies and their regional organizations preferences for autonomy and environmental stability Imagining India Nandan Nilekani,2012 The Federalism Report ,1994 Virginia journal of international law ,2002 Municipal Reform in Canada Joseph Garcea,Edward C.
