Constraint on Trial Gerrit Voogt,2020-05-25 Constraint on Trial examines the life and thought of Dirck Volckertsz Coornhert 1522 1590 The self made Coornhert was a notary secretary artist poet playwright translator theologian but most of all he was an intrepid controversialist born to contradict indefatigable in his critique of the public church and sects His main concern in polemics and disputations was the defense of freedom of conscience and advocacy of toleration

Coornhert's individualism made him eschew any restrictions on personal religious choice. His tolerationist writings, especially Synod on the Freedom of Conscience 1582 and Trial of the Killing of Heretics 1590, were rooted in his spiritualist belief system. He found inspiration in other protagonists of religious freedom such as Sebastian Franck and Castellio, but his ideas were uniquely Coornhertian. He possessed an unrelenting drive to combat constraint and regarded himself as God's battering ram meant to break down the prison of men's conscience.

The Collected Works of St. John of the Cross St John of the Cross, 1991-12-08 This revised edition of The Collected Works of St John of the Cross was produced to mark the fourth centenary of the death of St John of the Cross 1542-1591. The result is an English translation of his writings that preserves the authentic meaning of the great mystic's writings, presents them as clearly as possible, and at the same time gives the reader the doctrinal and historical information that will lead to a deeper understanding and appreciation of the teachings of the Mystical Doctor. Included in The Collected Works are St John's poetry: The Ascent of Mount Carmel, The Dark Night, The Spiritual Canticle, and The Living Flame of Love, as well as his extant letters and other counsels. More Information

Complementing St John's writings are a comprehensive General Introduction for the entire work, as well as brief enlightening introductions for each specific work, explaining theme and structure. These are enhanced by new and expanded footnotes and a glossary of terms. About the Translators: Kieran Kavanaugh, O.C.D., Father Kieran, a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, made his profession as a Discalced Carmelite in 1947. He has held several important positions within the order, including prior, formation director, and provincial councilor. A founding member of the Institute of Carmelite Studies, he subsequently served as its chair, as well as publisher of ICS Publications. Father Kieran's major contributions in the field of Carmelite studies are his translations from the Spanish of the works of St Teresa of Jesus and St John of the Cross, in collaboration with Father Otilio Rodriguez. He also was the English translator of God Speaks in the Night, The Life, Times and Teaching of St John of the Cross, a pictorial biography of St John of the Cross commemorating the 400th anniversary of his death, published in several languages. In addition to translations, Father Kieran is also the author of two ICS Publications study editions of the works of St Teresa and has written several other books on St Teresa and St John of the Cross. Congress, 1998 Passing Through the Gateless Barrier Guo Gu, 2016-05-31 The classic thirteenth century collection of Zen koans with one of the most accessible commentaries to date from a Chinese Zen teacher Gateways to awakening surround us at every moment of our lives The whole purpose of k an gong an in Chinese practice is to keep us from missing these myriad opportunities by leading us to certain gates that have traditionally been effective for people to access that marvelous awakening. The forty-eight k'ans of the Gateless Barrier (Chinese: Wumenguan; Japanese: Mumonkan) have been waking people up for well over eight hundred years. Chan teacher Guo Gu provides here a fresh translation of the classic text along with the first English commentary by a teacher of the Chinese tradition from which it originated. He shows that the k'ans in this text are not mere stories from a distant past but are rather pointers to the places in our lives where we get stuck and that each sticking point when examined can become a gateless barrier through which we can enter into profound wisdom.
