Gendering Modern German History Karen Hagemann, Jean H. Quataert, 2007-08-01 Writing on the history of German women has like women's history elsewhere undergone remarkable expansion and change since it began in the late 1960s Today Women's history still continues to flourish alongside gender history but the focus of research has increasingly shifted from women to gender This shift has made it possible to make men and masculinity objects of historical research too After more than thirty years of research it is time for a critical stocktaking of the gendering of the historiography on nineteenth and twentieth century Germany To provide a critical overview in a comparative German American perspective is the main aim of this volume which brings together leading experts from both sides of the Atlantic They discuss in their essays the state of historiography and reflect on problems of theory and methodology Through compelling case studies focusing on the nation and nationalism military and war colonialism politics and protest class and citizenship religion Jewish and non Jewish Germans the Holocaust the body and sexuality and the family this volume demonstrates the extraordinary power of the gender perspective to challenge existing interpretations and rewrite mainstream arguments Sinners, Works of Law, and Transgression in Gal 2:14b-21 Nicolai Techow, 2024-01-30 In this study of the flow of thought in Paul's speech to Cephas Gal 2 14b 21 Nicolai Techow explains the passage as a linear and unified argument centered on God's judgment of people in the cross of Christ as integral to justification He argues for a primarily moral religious meaning of sinfulness and works of law
