Documentary texts are vital to our understanding of many aspects of the ancient world such as its administration education and economy The value of these texts goes even further however being autographs they directly testify to ancient communication practices a field of study which so far has remained underexplored In this volume specialists in the field engage with a broad range of documentary sources They discuss not only how various modes of communication such as language handwriting and lay out are employed in specific contexts of writing but also how these different modes are interrelated Building on insights from contemporary social semiotic theory the volume makes a case for the establishment of historical social semiotics as a discipline      Indo-European Perspectives J. H. W. Penney,2004-10-14 This book brings together new and original work by forty two of the world s leading scholars of Indo European comparative philology and linguistics from around the world It shows the breadth and the continuing liveliness of enquiry in an area which over the last century and a half has opened many unique windows on the civilizations of the ancient world The volume is a tribute to Anna Morpurgo Davies to mark her retirement as the Diebold Professor of Comparative Philology at the University of Oxford The book s six parts are concerned with the early history of Indo European Part I language use variation and change in ancient Greece and Anatolia Parts II and III the Indo European languages of Western Europe including Latin Welsh and Anglo Saxon Part IV the ancient Indo Iranian and Tocharian languages Part V and the history of Indo European linguistics Part VI Indo

European Perspectives will interest scholars and students of Indo European philology historical linguistics classics and the history of the ancient world An Introduction to Greek Epigraphy of the Hellenistic and Roman Periods from Alexander the Great Down to the Reign of Constantine (323 B.C.-A.D. 337) Bradley Hudson McLean,2002 In short this is a reference work of the best kind For the beginner it is indispensable And for those who already know something about its subject matter the book is in many ways useful informative and interesting We all owe a debt to the author for undertaking this significant project and for completing it so well Michael Peachin Classical World provides invaluable road maps for non epigraphers faced with passages of inscribed Greek Graham Shipley Bryn Mawr Classical Review Greek inscriptions form a valuable resource for the study of all aspects of the Greco Roman world They are primary witnesses to society s laws and institutions religious habits and language This volume provides students with the tools to take advantage of the historical value of these treasures It examines letter forms ancient names and ancient calendars knowledge of which is essential in reading inscriptions of all kinds B H McLean discusses the classification of inscriptions into their various categories and analyzes particular types of inscriptions including decrees honorary inscriptions dedications funerary inscriptions and manumissions Finally McLean includes special topics that bear upon the interpretation of specific features of inscriptions such as Greek and Roman administrative titles and functions Greek - Latin - Slavic Barbora Machajdíkoviá,Ludmila Eliášová Buzássyová,2023-04-24 The volume is intended for classical philologists and a broad range of scholars working in the fields of theoretical historical and comparative linguistics with Ancient Greek Latin or Slavic languages as the primary evidence in their research The contributions address topics ranging from issues of grammatography in a diachronic perspective to historical and comparative linguistics They encompass both monothematic case studies and comprehensive analyses that capture a linguistic phenomenon in its entirety as well as within a broader context The Temple of Apollo Bassitas: The architecture Frederick A.
