Transatlantic Footholds Turn of the Century American Women Writers and British Reviewers analyses British reviews of American women fiction writers essayists and poets between the periods of literary domesticity and modernism The book demonstrates that a variety of American women writers were intelligently read in Britain during this era British reviewers read American women as literary artists as women and as Americans While their notion of who counted as women was too limited by race and class they eagerly read these writers for insight about how women around the world were entering debates on women s place the class struggle religion Indian policy childrearing and high society In the process by reading American women in varied ways reviewers became hybrid and dissenting readers The taste among British reviewers for American women s books helped change the predominant direction that high culture flowed across the Atlantic from east to west to west to east Britons working in London or far afield were deeply invested in the idea of America America their responses prove is a transnational construct Preview ,1990 Mothering, Time, and Antimaternalism Mary Trigg,2023-02-24 The book aims to broaden understanding of the diverse positions and meanings of motherhood by investigating understudied and marginalized mothers rural itinerant African American and Irish Catholic American between 1920 and 1960 Fuelled by anxieties around feminism a perception of men s loss of status and masculinity racial tensions and fears about immigration antimaternalism discourse blamed mothers for a wide range of social ills in the first half of the 20th Century Mothering Time and Antimaternalism considers the ideas practices and depictions of antimaternalism and the ways that mothers responded Religion class race ethnicity gender and immigration status are all analysed as factors shaping maternal experience The book develops the historical context of American motherhood between 1920 and 1960 examining how changing ideas scientific motherhood time efficiency devaluation of domesticity racial and religious bias influenced the construction and experiences of motherhood This is a fascinating and important book suitable for students and scholars in history gender studies cultural studies and sociology Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L. Pylodet,Karl Brown,Frederick Leyboldt,Charles Ammi Cutter,Bertine Emma Weston,Helen E. Wessells,1920 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Issued also separately Women Will Vote Susan Goodier,Karen Pastorello,2017-09-15 Women Will Vote celebrates the 2017 centenary of women s right to full suffrage in New York State Susan Goodier and Karen Pastorello highlight the activism of rural urban African American Jewish immigrant and European American women as well as male suffragists both upstate and downstate that led to the positive outcome of the 1917

referendum Goodier and Pastorello argue that the popular nature of the women s suffrage movement in New York State and the resounding success of the referendum at the polls relaunched suffrage as a national issue If women had failed to gain the vote in New York Goodier and Pastorello claim there is good reason to believe that the passage and ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment would have been delayed Women Will Vote makes clear how actions of New York s patchwork of suffrage advocates heralded a gigantic political social and legal shift in the United States Readers will discover that although these groups did not always collaborate by working in their own ways toward the goal of enfranchising women they essentially formed a coalition Together they created a diverse social and political movement that did not rely solely on the motivating force of white elites and a leadership based in New York City Goodier and Pastorello convincingly argue that the agitation and organization that led to New York women s victory in 1917 changed the course of American history

Nonconformist Women Writers, 1720-1840, Part I Vol 4 Timothy Whelan, 2024-08-28 These volumes will present in some cases for the first time the lives and works of a coterie of Nonconformist women writers from the West Country
