Public Service Recommendation Letter

November 25, 2050

Ms. Sarah L. Carter
Director of Human Resources
Metropolis City Government
5678 Government Way
Metropolis, MA 10001

Dear Ms. Carter,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Michael A. Dawson in support of his application for the position of Community Engagement Coordinator with the Metropolis City Government. I have had the pleasure of working alongside Michael for the past four years in my capacity as Program Director at [Your Company Name], where he has proven to be a dedicated and outstanding advocate for public service.

Business Reference Services and Sources Linda S Katz, 2013-04-03 The most proactive source for business reference librarian information on the market Business Reference Services and Sources How End Users and Librarians Work Together shows you that the librarian customer relationship is as synergistic as ever It gives you timely facts about how librarians and users work together and how those partnerships are built In it you ll encounter group projects done by faculty students external users and non librarian supervisors and discover an enlightening spirit of collaboration lacking in most research literature today Further establishing the marketability of contemporary research librarians Business Reference Service and Sources goes to the front lines of business reference service solidifying and updating the librarian user partnership You ll see how research librarians can reach users at the crux of their needs Overall individual chapters address the needs of such people as students business school officials and corporations Specifically you ll read about these areas Internet business research and ESL students corporate home pages as supplements to traditional business resources networking with community business sources synergy in the information specialist customer partnership avoiding information overload in bibliographic instruction the Internet s impact on government documents assessing the validity of electronic journals underprivileged nontraditional students and bibliographic instruction Today in our climate of negative ad campaigns directed at libraries and librarians in general business reference librarians face many challenges academic as well as professional But if you re one of the vocal proactive supporters of productive librarian customer partnerships this book will help you grow feet and move out from behind the restrictive comfort of your desk into the world's classrooms and manufacturing teams. Certainly Business References and Sources will convince you that collaborative projects between contemporary reference librarians and end users are alive and well. Evolution in Reference and Information Services Di Su, 2001. Explore ways to bring and keep your library's electronic services up to date. From editor Di Su. Some years ago if you were told that a library's catalog would be available on a 24/7/365 basis you'd think it was just another fiction. Perhaps as influential as Johannes Gutenberg's invention of movable type, printing the Internet is one of the most significant happenings in the information world in modern times. In addition to showing you how library services have been influenced and enhanced by the advent of the Internet, Evolution in Reference and Information Services: The Impact of the Internet will enable you to make the most of the new opportunities that current technologies offer. This valuable book will also help you and your library avoid the pitfalls and new challenges to professional competency that come along with electronic research. Evolution in Reference and Information Services gives you a review of the history of electronic reference, looks at the increasing role of librarians as teachers and providers of technical help for users, provides case studies and ways to evaluate electronic research methods, suggests strategies for providing effective electronic services, examines government Web sites, explores Internet sources of health information, shows you how to establish electronic services through your library's portal site, looks at how to manage a library computer lab, and much more. Evolution in Reference and Information Services Linda S Katz, 2013-05-13.
