and Other Religions Irfan Omar, 2013-09-13 This collection of essays assesses various dimensions of dialogue between Islam and other religions, especially Christianity. This book celebrates the work of Professor Mahmoud Ayoub and reflects the themes that are central in his scholarship, spanned over the last three decades and which are more relevant than ever at the inauguration of the twenty-first century. The themes reflected are the Quran and hadith, theology and philosophy, and Islam's interaction with other religions. Ayoub needs no introduction to those familiar with and engaged in inter-religious dialogue in general and Muslim-Christian-Jewish dialogue in particular. He is a well-known Muslim scholar and historian of religion, currently director of the Islamic studies program in the department of religion at Temple University in Philadelphia. His broad area of interest is of course Islamic studies, but he has also exerted considerable scholarly efforts in comparative religion. As evidenced from Dr. Ayoub's works, he moves with ease between philosophy and mysticism, scripture and tradition, and between Islam and other religions. As a Muslim, Ayoub has provided a model of being religious which combines openness to others without compromising rigorous historical scholarship. Contributors to this volume include some of his close friends and colleagues as well as former students, both Muslim and Christian. This book was previously published as a special issue of Islam and Christian-Muslim Relations. Spiritual Care: Reflections from a Hospice Chaplain Jr. Charles J. Lopez, 2015-10-13

Dame Cecily Saunders and Elizabeth Kubler Ross and into the recognized modality it is today of compassionate and palliative care for those who are on their final journey from this world Pastor Lopez rightly fills this name as he reaches out not only to patients and their families but the team of nurses doctors social workers and caregivers who offer their hands and hearts to those in need Within these pages you will find practical and compassionate words along with hands and a heart that knows the pain of loss and feet that are willing to accompany the reader on their journey Afro-Atlantic Flight Michelle D. Commander, 2017-03-02

In Afro Atlantic Flight Michelle D Commander traces how post civil rights Black American artists intellectuals and travelers envision literal and figurative flight back to Africa as a means by which to heal the dispossession caused by the slave trade Through ethnographic historical literary and filmic analyses Commander shows the ways that cultural producers such as Octavia Butler Thomas Allen Harris and Saidiya Hartman engage with speculative thought about slavery the spiritual realm and Africa thereby structuring the imaginary that propels future return flights She goes on to examine Black Americans cultural heritage tourism in and migration to Ghana Bahia Brazil and various sites of slavery in the US South to interrogate the ways that a cadre of actors produces Africa and contests master narratives Compellingly these material flights do not always satisfy Black Americans individualistic desires for homecoming and liberation leading Commander to focus on the revolutionary possibilities inherent in psychic speculative returns and to argue for the development of a Pan Africanist stance that works to more effectively address the contemporary resonances of slavery that exist across the Afro Atlantic In paradisum ,1997 Avalanche Bethany Bella, 2015-04-21
