Reflective Journey Toward Order:

The Reflective Journey Toward Order Marion Montgomery, 2008-10-01 This book embodies a sequence of closely related essays which explore the modern poet's uneasy awareness of a tradition the romantic tradition with which he must contend. The author's premise is that the romantic age extends from The Divine Comedy through Wordsworth to Eliot. The roots of contemporary questions about the self and alienation are seen to extend at least as far back as Dante who is the first poet to choose the ego as a focus for poetry of epic dimensions. In the course of the study Montgomery considers the growing emphasis upon the self's becoming the focus of poetry until this shift culminated in the literature of the most autobiographical century in western letters the twentieth. Dante Wordsworth and Eliot are discussed at length individually and in relation to one another as principal instances of the reflective poet. The critic also considers other illustrative figures such as Milton Coleridge Keats Whitman Pound Joyce and Hemingway. These and other writers have traveled along the romantic road anticipated by The Divine Comedy. Finally the author suggests the road may end in a labyrinth so far as the contemporary writer is concerned. In his increasing concern with the problems of the self and of the mind the poet has been forced to invent new modes and techniques which as the author demonstrates grow out of his response to the psychological and metaphysical preoccupations of his age.

Roesener,2021-05-28 The book is a study of each of the 150 chapters of Psalms including each section of the 119th Psalm Christ Among Them Edoardo Mungello,2009-05-27 This essay newly interprets the rise of the individual within the Italian peninsula between 1180 and 1300 It follows the historical events and the cultural products that define the period keeping in mind that the creators were conscious of a tangible real Christ in their midst For it is the time when Jesus was known to be in the Eucharist as a carnal potentiality as well as a time when Europeans on Crusade had reached his temporal abode As Christ as neighbor became a consistent idea the relationship towards that idea became one of accommodation making subsequent worship a form of individualism The later Renaissance was as much a specific reaction to a particular understanding of Christology within the cultural sphere as it was a reawakening of Classical ideals through a new paradigm of European selfhood outside of Christianity Understood in this way the Incarnation helped to produce an action based Christianity amenable to the needs of the Roman Church The later insistence upon text and notions of personal conscience that identifies the Reformation can now be seen as a true end to the Renaissance Christian praxis which began with the excitement over Christ among them
