Reflexivity In Film And Literature From Don Quixote To Jean Luc Godard:

Reflexivity in Film and Literature Robert Stam,1985 Reflexivity refers to those moments in fiction and film when the work suddenly calls attention to itself as a fictional construct For example in literature a character might suddenly step out of the story and address the reader This study of reflexivity in film and literature pays special attention to Don Quixote one of the first such examples of reflexivity in the novel and to Jean Luc Godard and the nouvelle vague in cinema where self reflection prevailed It examines the rise of modernism the complicity of the reader spectator in creating illusion and the production process in film The discussion of film includes Rear Window Tom Jones and The French Lieutenant s Woman Source inconnue

Yosefa Loshitzky,1995 From the radical 1960s through the neo conservative 1980s and into the early 1990s the provocative cinematic careers of French director Jean Luc Godard and Italian director Bernardo Bertolucci have captured the imagination of filmgoers and critics alike Although their films differ greatly Godard produces highly cerebral and theoretical works while Bertolucci creates films with more spectacle and emotionalism their careers have sparked lively discussion and debate mostly centred around the notion of an Oedipal struggle between them Metafilm Music in Jean-Luc Godard's Cinema

Michael Baumgartner,2022 Hailed as a leading innovator of visual montage unique storytelling style and ground breaking cinematography Jean Luc Godard is a prominent pioneer in sculpting complex soundtracks altering the familiar relationship between sound and image but his achievements in sound have been largely overlooked Such a lacuna in the extensive research on Godard s work is unfortunate as Godard s lifelong preoccupation of exploring self reflexively all aspects of filmmaking particularly affects film music With the novel approach of metafilm music extrapolated from Jean Luc Godard s oeuvre this book not only closes up a crucial gap in Godard research but also offers detailed analyses of the music as metafilm music in Contempt Alphaville Band of Outsiders Pierrot le fou First Name Carmen Histoire s du cin ma among other films and video productions The innovative scholarly concept of metafilm music enriching the burgeoning field of music in audio visual media describes how Godard thinks about film music with film music This book thus provides a thorough examination of Godard s self reflexive approach to film music which has resulted in a lifelong creation of multi layered soundtracks pushing the envelope of film music and sound to the limit Graphic Design Theory Helen

Armstrong,2012-08-10 Graphic Design Theory is organized in three sections Creating the Field traces the evolution of graphic design over the course of the early 1900s including influential avant garde ideas of futurism constructivism and the Bauhaus Building on Success covers the mid to late twentieth century and considers the International Style modernism and postmodernism and Mapping the Future opens at the end of the last century and includes current discussions on legibility perspective What seems like closure might be something more as Catherine Russell shows us in this book about death in narrative cinema since the 1950s Analyzing the structural importance of death in narrative endings as well as the thematics of loss and redemption Russell identifies mortality as a valuable critical tool for understanding the cinema of the second half of the twentieth century Her work includes close textual readings of films by Fritz Lang Wim Wenders Oshima Nagisa Jean Luc Godard and Robert Altman among others In these analyses Russell reveals an uneasy relationship between death and closure which she traces to anxieties about identity gender and national cultural myths as well as to the persistence of desire Drawing on the work of Walter Benjamin she shows us death as a fundamentally allegorical structure in cinema and as a potential sign of historical difference with crucial implications for theories of film narrative and spectatorship Narrative Mortality provides fresh insight into the dynamics of postmodern cinema as it emerged from the modernist preoccupation with existential mortality By tracing the role of death from a work that precedes the Brechtian cinema of the 1960s Beyond a Reasonable Doubt to several that succeed it Nashville The State of Things the book expands the narrative project of New Wave cinema and ushers it onto a broader historical plane

The Golden Age Chris Murray, Elizabeth Rogers, Jeffrey W. Smith, 2016-09-23 This volume investigates the diverse applications and conceptions of the term The Golden Age The phrase resonates with the theme of nostalgia which is popularly understood as a wistful longing for the past but which also denotes homesickness and the unrecoverability of the past While the term Golden Age typically conjures up idealised visions of the past and gestures forward to utopian visions of future golden ages the idea of nostalgia is suggestive of a discontented present The Golden Age and nostalgia are therefore related ideas but are also partly in conflict with one another as many nostalgic sentiments are not idealised and may indeed be dark ironic or self aware There are of course many other ways to characterise the relationship between the Golden Age and nostalgia and the tension between the two can produce myths and romantic idylls or in religious terms images of pre lapsarian innocence or dogmas relating to values associated with childhood The Golden Age is also often used to refer to specific respected periods of cultural production in all kinds of literature and visual media Indeed nearly every period genre nation and cultural form has some kind of mythic often illusory Golden Age against which it is defined and in which nostalgia often plays a part This collection interrogates the notion of the Golden Age and its connection to feelings of nostalgia from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives with a strong focus on the relationship between word and image It will interest scholars working on the subject of the Golden Age nostalgia particularly in English literature film studies comics studies history and the fine arts
