Discursive Geographies / Géographies discursives ,2005-01-01 The present collection of essays follows in the wake of recent work in cultural geography challenging the idea that maps are scientifically neutral entities or that space unlike time is immobile In defining space place and geography as forms of textuality the essays collected in this volume examine the ways in which postcolonial and metropolitan literary and filmic texts in French can at once inscribe and produce place and space and thereby participate in forms of discursive geographies Contributors Fran ois Bon Alexandre Dauge Roth Habiba Deming Zakaria Fatih Jeanne Garane Patricia Geesey Greg Hainge Sir ne Harb Jean Luc Joly Chantal Kalisa Michel Laronde Val rie Loichot Mary McCullough Michael O Riley Pascale Perraudin Walter Putnam Antoine St phani Abdourahman A Waberi

Afroeurope@ns Marta Sofía López,2009-03-26 The essays in this groundbreaking collection constitute a pioneering attempt at establishing a comparative agenda for the study of black literatures and identities in the context of the European Union Drawing from a wide variety of critical perspectives and methodologies from Post colonial or Diaspora Studies to Sociology or Ethnography contributors to the volume analyze black diasporic communities and their cultural productions in Spain Portugal France Italy Germany and the United Kingdom paying particular attention to women afrosporic writers

Waberi,2005 Originally published in France in 1994 this newly translated collection presents stories about the precolonial and colonial past of Djibouti alongside those set in the postcolonial era With irony and humor these short stories portray madmen poets artists French colonists pseudointellectuals young women aspiring politicians famished refugees khat chewers nomads struggling to survive in Djibouti s ruthless natural environment or tramps living and dying in Balbala the shantytown that stretches to the south of the capital Cover The Politics of Translating Sound Motifs in African Fiction Laurence Jay-Rayon Ibrahim Aibo,2020-02-15 Starting with the premise that aesthetic choices reveal the ideological stances of translators the author of this research monograph examines works of fiction by postcolonial African authors writing in English or French the genesis and reception of their works and the translation of each one into French or English Texts include those by Nuruddin Farah from Somalia Abdourahman Ali Waberi from Djibouti Jean Marie Adiaffi from C te d Ivoire Ayi Kwei Armah from Ghana Chenjerai Hove from Zimbabwe and Assia Djebar from Algeria and their translations by Jacqueline Bardolph Jeanne Garane Brigitte Katiyo Jean Pierre Richard Josette and Robert Mane and Dorothy Blair The author highlights the aural poetics of these works explores the sound motifs underlying their literary power and shows how each is articulated with the writer s literary heritage She then embarks on a close examination of each translator s background followed by a rich analysis of their treatments of sound The translators strategies for addressing sound motifs are contextualized in the larger framework of postcolonial literatures and changing reading materialities Writing the Nomadic Experience in Contemporary Francophone Literature Katharine N. Harrington,2013 In this book Author Katharine N Harrington examines contemporary writers from the French speaking world who can be classified as literary nomads The concept of nomadism based on the experience of traditionally mobile peoples lacking any fixed home reflects a postmodern way of thinking that encourages individuals to reconsider rigid definitions of borders classifications and identities Nomadic identities reflect shifting landscapes that defy taking on fully the limits of any one fixed national or cultural identity In conceiving of identities beyond the boundaries of national or cultural origin this book opens up the space for nomadic subjects whose identity is based just as much on their geographical displacement and deterritorialization as on a relationship to any one fixed place community or culture This study explores the experience of an existence between borders and its translation into writing that While nomadism is frequently associated with post colonial authors this study considers an eclectic group of contemporary Francophone writers who are not easily defined by the boundaries of one nation one culture or one language Each of the four writers J M G LeCl zio Nancy Huston Nina Bouraoui and R gine Robin maintains a connection to France but it is one that is complicated by life experiences backgrounds and choices that inevitably expand their identities beyond the Hexagon Harrington examines how these authors life experiences are reflected in their writing and how they may inform us on the state of our increasingly global world where borders and identities are blurred Black France Dominic Thomas,2007 W ithout a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France s treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy
