Risk And Protective Factors In Schizophrenia Towards A Conceptual Model Of The Disease Proceeb:

Risk and Protective Factors in Schizophrenia Heinz Häfner, 2012-12-06 H HAFNER Schizophrenia Research Unit Central Institute of Mental Health Mannheim Germany The present volume contains the lectures and invited discussions of the symposium on Risk and protective factors in schizophrenia towards a conceptual model of the disease process which was held at the International Science Forum of the University of Heidelberg from October 25 to 27 2001 They are supplemented by a Summary and outlook in which Peter Jones gives a brief overview of the results and perspectives featured in the presentations and discussions The contributions and discussions reflect the open minded and creative atmosphere at the meeting The systematically structured program of the symposium continued the tradition of the Search for the Causes of Schizophrenia symposia which were first started in 1986 on the occasion of the 600 anniversary of the University of Heidelberg and which are co organized with Prof Wagner Farid Gattaz Sao Paulo The aim of these symposia and their proceedings volumes 6 8 10 has been to reflect the state of the art in schizophrenia research at their time and they have successfully done so In contrast the present symposium pursued a more limited objective and was of a different type It brought together around a large table at the International Science Forum in Heidelberg 22 invited speakers and discussants and an equal number of young scientists working in the research fields in question who were thus given an opportunity to listen and to participate

Search for the Causes of Schizophrenia W.F. Gattaz, H. Häfner, 2012-12-06 This volume is a compilation of the presentations and discussions arranged in a systematic manner of the fifth symposium on the Search for the Causes of Schizophrenia held in Guarujá Brazil in April 2003 The meetings look back on a great tradition The first symposium held in 1986 on the occasion of the 600 anniversary of the University of Heidelberg was our first effort to assemble successful schizophrenia researchers to present and discuss research results in a spirit overcoming methodological boundaries and disciplines The result was one of the most interesting and exciting meetings and a proceedings volume published in 1987 Like the present volume it contained the presentations and discussions of the meeting conveying an excellent picture of what was going on in schizophrenia research at that time and outlining the main future perspectives Four further symposia followed at an interval of 2 to 3 years each They were guided by the same principle and characterised by illustrious contributors and a highly stimulating atmosphere The proceedings volumes all entitled Search for the causes of schizophrenia and looking alike were published by the same publisher They reflect the considerable progress made in schizophrenia research since 1986 and have been widely used as a source for information on the most promising research lines and results and as a reference for comprehensive reviews
