Giordano's newfound mindfulness practice and enlightening meditations helped him discover that his easygoing people-pleasing persona was fake. Incorporating insights from Freud, Maya Angelou, Buddha, and others, he connects the dots of his self-sabotaging story that remained hidden for decades. Jerry has put his 7 words philosophy into practice by interviewing over 200 people from ages thirteen to ninety-four. Through the process of discovering their 7 words, they developed an in-depth understanding of how their unconscious story had affected their lives. Filled with personal insights, humor, and step-by-step instructions, Giordano will guide you to the uncovering of your own sabotaging words so you can understand why you do what you do and choose the relationships you have so far. Your 7 Words to a Happier You will set you on a journey to unimaginable self-worth, peace, and contentment. Sport Psychology for Coaches Damon Burton, Thomas D.

Raedeke, 2008. This book presents an applied approach to sport psychology and is designed to enable coaches and students to understand key sport psychology tools. It provides coaches with a practical discussion of motivation, communication, stress management, mental imagery, and other important topics. It is a reader-friendly organisation that includes learning objectives that introduce each chapter, sidebars illustrating sport-specific applications of key concepts and principles, and chapter summaries. Transactions of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 1925. Spiritual Sensations Sarah K.

Balstrup, 2020-09-17. The secular pluralist culture of the West encourages a subjective approach to spiritual truth where stimulating emotional experiences such as those provided by film can contribute to personal conceptions of the sacred. Examining Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey (1968) as the principal case study and Gaspar Noé's Enter the Void (2009) and Lars von Trier's Melancholia (2011) as comparative examples, Sarah Balstrup argues that these directors harness the affective properties of film to generate altered states of perception in a manner analogous to religious practice. Powerful feelings of dissociation and indescribable significance typical of mystical testimony appear in viewer responses to these films, demonstrating the continued sacralisation of such states of mind. In their own way, each film confronts the viewer with an apocalyptic revelation of the impersonal forces of the universe moving away from personhood and the human narrative into pure sensation. They present a non-deterministic spiritual truth that can be intuited but not explained, mirroring developments in the religious sphere. Investigating the relationship between cinematic technique and religious experience, Spiritual Sensations offers an alternative approach to the study of religion and film that has been principally focused on narrative symbolism and the dramatisation of values. Spiritual Sensations makes a further contribution to the field by analysing films contextually, considering viewers' subjective responses in light of religious and cultural change.
