Cultural Heritage of the Great War in Britain Ross J. Wilson, 2016-04-22 As the hundredth anniversary approaches it is timely to reflect not only upon the Great War itself and on the memorials which were erected to ensure it did not slip from national consciousness but also to reflect upon its rich and substantial cultural legacy This book examines the heritage of the Great War in contemporary Britain It addresses how the war maintains a place and value within British society through the usage of phrases references metaphors and imagery within popular media heritage and political discourse Whilst the representation of the war within historiography literature art television and film has been examined by scholars seeking to understand the origins of the popular memory of the conflict these analyses have neglected how and why wider popular debate draws upon a war fought nearly a century ago to express ideas about identity place and politics By examining the history usage and meanings of references to the Great

War within local and national newspapers historical societies political publications and manifestos the heritage sector popular expressions blogs and internet chat rooms an analysis of the discourses which structure the remembrance of the war can be created The book acknowledges the diversity within Britain as different regional and national identities draw upon the war as a means of expression Whilst utilising the substantial field of heritage studies this book puts forward a new methodology for assessing cultural heritage and creates an original perspective on the place of the Great War across contemporary British society

Spirituality in Counselling and Psychotherapy

Dennis Lines,2006-10-16 Fascinating There is much here that is controversial thought provoking and very useful It is encyclopaedic in its breadth and use of knowledge Like rich food it needs to be taken in slowly savouring every morsel Thresholds Spirituality has been traditionally taboo within the counselling and psychotherapy profession Denis Lines comes into this controversial scene with a rigorous but gentle mystical but grounded inspiring and thought provoking voice The book is well written and presents the model in the context of other therapeutic modalities which makes it interesting and useful for therapists from different backgrounds and practice settings It could also be of use for those involved in religious education pastoral care or anybody interested in the spiritual development of the self or the existential quest of humankind Therapy Today This gentle mystical empirical and scholarly book is truly inspirational and it deserves the widest possible readership among therapists religious educators and all those who care about the spiritual destiny of humankind Professor Brian Thorne Co founder The Norwich Centre and Emeritus Professor of Counselling University of East Anglia Spirituality in Counselling and Psychotherapy explores the idea that throughout the course of a therapeutic relationship between therapist and client a spiritual level is reached by the two people involved The author shows how this dimension can help clients who are living in an increasingly secular and faithless society to find some resolution with the issues they bring to therapy By exploring different perspectives on religion and spirituality

the book provides therapists with the grounding they need to introduce spiritually centred counselling into their practice It describes the characteristics of spiritual counselling and covers practical considerations such as recognising indications from the client to move into a spiritual mode of therapy exploring the self through spiritual work within the therapeutic process and how this can lead to healing and growth how to deal with doubt and scepticism over issues of spirituality The book is illustrated throughout with transcripts and case studies to show how therapists can integrate the spiritual within their own approach to therapeutic work It will be invaluable to all those who wish to explore this dimension in their work with clients
