Destiny's Journey Robert Ruiz Jr.,2014-10-14 Children and younger adolescents in todays world are bombarded with information from the electronic media and in particular the internet Much of what they see and read has little redeeming social value Computer games are particularly violent and teach the lesson that in order to have your way it is okay to resort to strength and violence Robert Ruiz Jr in writing Destiny's Journey sought to provide children and youth with an imaginative adventure story rooted in the values of family and friendship that stand the test of time love joy peace kindness gentleness faith and patience Inculcated in the story are the concepts of a Creator and a plan of life that is greater than any individual or group of individuals on earth There is indeed a divine plan for all living things The author in developing the Chiles family was particularly interested in engaging Mexican and Hispanic American children and youth many of whom have been raised in the produce fields of Mexico and the United States Thus Chiles family characters serve as the vehicle to share values that make any society strong The interdependence of the characters in this story clearly demonstrates that no man is an island entire of it self All of us need each other regardless of race age or background in order to not only survive but thrive in todays world And above all we must recognize that there is a higher power at work in each of our lives The Turn Around Religion in America Professor Michael P Kramer, Professor Nan Goodman, 2013-05-28 Playing on the frequently used metaphors of the turn toward or turn back in scholarship on religion The Turn Around Religion in America offers a model of religion that moves in a reciprocal relationship between these two poles In particular this volume dedicates itself to a reading of religion and of religious meaning that cannot be reduced to history or ideology on the one hand or to truth or spirit on the other but is rather the product of the constant play between the historical particulars that manifest beliefs and the beliefs that take shape through them Taking as their point of departure the foundational scholarship of Sacvan Bercovitch the contributors locate the universal in the ongoing and particularized attempts of American authors from the seventeenth century forward to get it whatever that it might be right Examining authors as diverse as Pietro di Donato Herman Melville Miguel Algarin Edward Taylor Mark Twain Robert Keayne Nathaniel Hawthorne Paule Marshall Stephen Crane Ralph Waldo Emerson and Joseph B Soloveitchik among many others and a host of genres from novels and poetry to sermons philosophy history journalism photography theater and cinema the essays call for a discussion of religion s powers that does not seek to explain them as much as put them into conversation with each other Central to this project is Bercovitch s emphasis on the rhetoric ritual typology and symbology of religion and his recognition that with each aesthetic enactment of religion s power we learn something new The Finger of God Malcolm Batley, 2015-05-13 The Screaming Demon is the sequel to the Beginning The book follows Malcolm when he makes his way toward the castle looking for revenge He must come to terms with his self and the fact that he is now a witch doctor He wakes up only to discover he is not alone The Rat jumped onto Malcolm Batleys lap making him jump and this time he had peed himself The Rat was very small but his legs and arms were long He was all covered in long brown hair so they called him the Little Rat The Rat gives Malcolm some good advice Then he tells Malcolm what he must do but will he do what Rat asked You save Little Rat Click You kick man from village in ribs so I get away from him Then so I give magic to you Man from village He try steals my magic from me but now villages think I run with a Screaming Demon so now they leave me alone Click Villages think you are Screaming Demon they now leave you alone and keep out of your way but one or two will try stealing magic from you Rat gave me the bad news Now I would have to take him to his grave to his grave I would not be burying him I would be taking him to the top of Mount Cameroon where I had to drop him into the volcano dead or alive I told him no at first Thats when he told me about the castle which I was looking for Rat whom I called Little Man and the man who I became good friends with How could I throw him to his death Little man was a good persuader If I took him to his resting place he would show me how to kill the serpent and where I could find him Then he would teach me how to survive and what I could eat So I said I would take him He said he was dying anyway I was in for a long and hard walk which would take me right back to where it all began and then an even longer march toward the castle where I would fine my own demon along with the serpent which I had to defeat
