Schairer, 2014-11-29 In July 1864 while hemmed in by Grant at Richmond General Robert E Lee conceived a bold plan designed not only to relieve Lynchburg and protect the Confederate supply line but also to ultimately make a bold move on Washington itself A major facet of this plan with the addition of General Jubal Early s forces became the rescue of the almost 15 000 Confederate prisoners at Point Lookout a large Union prison camp at the confluence of the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay With international recognition hanging in the balance for the Confederacy the failure of Lee s plan saved the Union and ultimately changed the course of the war This work focuses on the many factors that contributed to this eventual failure including Early s somewhat inexplicable hesitancy a significant loss of time for Confederate troops en route and aggressive defensive action by Union General Lew Wallace It also discusses various circumstances such as Washington s stripped defenses the potential release of imprisoned Southern troops and a breakdown of Union military intelligence that made Lee s gamble a brilliant well founded strategy Cincinnati Magazine , 2005-05 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region On Orbit and Beyond Douglas A. human spaceflight In addition to examining contemporary psychological research several of the essays also explicitly address the history of the psychology of space exploration Leading contributors to the field place the latest theories and empirical findings in historical context by exploring changes in space missions over the past half century as well as reviewing developments in the psychological sciences during the same period The essays are innovative in their approaches and conclusions providing novel insights for behavioral researchers and historians alike The Lookout, from the Denver Public Library Denver Public Library,1927 Home and School Visitor ,1924 College Success for Students of Color Francisco A.
