Marriage and Marriageability Chigusa Yamaura,2020-07-15 How do the Japanese men and Chinese women who participate in cross border matchmaking individuals whose only interaction is often just one brief meeting come to see one another as potential marriage partners Motivated by this question Chigusa Yamaura traces the practices of Sino Japanese matchmaking from transnational marriage agencies in Tokyo to branch offices and language schools in China from initial meetings to marriage the visa application processes and beyond to marital life in Japan Engaging issues of colonial history local norms and the very ability to conceive of another or oneself as marriageable Marriage and Marriageability rethinks cross border marriage not only as a form of gendered migration but also as a set of practices that constructs marriageable partners and imaginable marriages Yamaura shows that instead of desiring different others these transnational marital relations are based on the tactical deployment of socially and historically created conceptions of proximity between Japan and northeast China Far from seeking to escape local practices participants in these marriages actively seek to avoid transgressing local norms By doing so on a transnational scale they paradoxically reaffirm and attempt to remain within the boundaries of local marital ideologies      Annual Report Ontario. Department of Agriculture,1917      Japan Magazine ,1922      Yank ,1943      The Japan Magazine ,1922      Japanese Ghost Stories Lafcadio Hearn,2019-07-25 The dead wreak revenge on the living paintings come alive spectral brides possess mortal men and a priest devours human flesh in these chilling Japanese ghost stories retold by a master of the supernatural Lafcadio Hearn drew on the phantoms and ghouls of traditional Japanese folklore including the headless rokuro kubi the monstrous goblins jikininki or the faceless mujina who stalk lonely neighbourhoods and infused them with his own memories of his haunted childhood in nineteenth century Ireland to create these terrifying tales of striking and eerie power Today they are regarded in Japan as classics in their own right

Edited with an introduction by Paul Murray      Japan and The Illustrated London News ,2021-10-01 The Illustrated London News launched in 1842 was the world s first illustrated newspaper and an immediate success Its first report on Japan however was not until eleven years later when as a result of Commodore Perry s much discussed plan to open Japan it published a substantial piece entitled The United States Expedition to Japan in the issue of 7 May 1853 opening with the portentous words The presence of a large and powerful American fleet in the Eastern Seas possesses an unexpected interest at the present moment Various reports by unnamed correspondents continued for the next eight years until August 1861 when Charles Wirgman s first report with illustrations appeared Described as Our Special Artist and Correspondent Wirgman was to be the ILN s principal source for reporting on Japan for many years and famously reported the attack on the British Legation in July 1861 and the British bombardment of Shimonoseki in 1864 After the mid 1870s Wirgman s input declined and the work of other artists and reporters appeared instead The ILN s own obituary on Wirgman was published on 28 March 1891 By the late 1880s new photogravure printing technology was in place and the appearance of the paper changed significantly Furthermore the reporting from Japan diminished noticeably indeed there were a number of years in the period featured in this volume when not a single item on Japan appeared But in the mid 1890s the ILN carried in depth reporting on the Sino Japanese War 1894-5 to the virtual exclusion of any other stories and then reported nothing for the following two years This volume concludes in 1899 the year of ratification of the ending of the Unequal Treaties between Japan and the Great Powers which had major implications for Japan and its nascent empire yet the ILN failed to make any reference to it Instead its one report for the final year of the nineteenth century was on the launch of the British built battleship Asahi which was to play a major role in the Imperial Japanese Navy during the forthcoming Russo Japanese War 1904-5 a war which once again was to preoccupy the ILN pages Thus Japan and The Illustrated London News provides readers and researchers for the first time with a one stop access point to the complete record of reported events relating to Japan in the critical half century following its opening to the West

The Japan Chronicle ,1913      The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature J. Thomas Rimer,2007-04-24 In Volume 2 of Columbia s comprehensive anthology of modern Japanese literature thoughtfully selected and carefully translated readings portray the vast changes that have transformed Japanese culture since the end of the Pacific War Beginning with the Allied Occupation in 1945 and concluding with the early twenty first century these stories poems plays and essays reflect Japan s heady transition from poverty to prosperity its struggle with conflicting ideologies and political beliefs and the growing influence of popular culture on the country s artistic and intellectual traditions Organized chronologically and by genre within each period readings include fiction by Hayashi Fumiko and Oe Kenzaburo poems by Ayukawa Nobuo Katsura Nobuko and Saito Fumi plays by Mishima Yukio and Shimizu Kunio and a number of essays among them Eto Jun on Natsume Soseki and his brilliant novel Kokoro The Heart of Things and Kawabata Yasunari on the shape of his literary career and the enduring influence of classical Japanese literature Some authors train a keen eye on the contemporary world while others address the historical past and its relationship to modern culture Some adopt an even broader scope and turn to European models for inspiration while others look inward exploring psychological and sexual terrain in new often daring ways Spanning almost six decades this anthology provides a thorough introduction to a profound period of creative activity
