Looking Into A Mirror:

Look In My Mirror Javier Sanchez, 2009 A father tells his daughter how he feels about her University of California Publications in Education University of California, Berkeley, 1907 10 Things You Aren't Telling Him Clinton, Julie, 2009-08 A woman longs to be loved So when there is a lack of connection with her husband the hurt can run deep With encouraging examples from her marriage and those of women surveyed author and speaker Julie Clinton models how readers can start important conversations with their husbands and express their deepest thoughts about topics of faith life and love including Hurts How he distances her emotionally or physically Sex What she likes dislikes and desires for sexual and nonsexual touch The Past Secrets prior sexual relationships abortion abuse shame God Her needs for spiritual leadership prayer and spiritual intimacy Dreams Her hopes and her desire for mutual goals These intimacy solutions will spark reconnection in a marriage and will remind couples of their deep affection for one another and the strength and beauty of a relationship that is based on truth acceptance and forgiveness From Virtue to Vice Richard A. O'Connor, Penny Van Esterik, 2015-03-01 The recovered possess the key to overcoming anorexia Although individual sufferers do not know how the affliction takes hold piecing their stories together reveals two accidental afflictions One is that activity disorders dieting exercising healthy eating start as virtuous practices but become addictive obsessions The other affliction is a developmental disorder which also starts with the virtuous those eager for challenge and change But these overachievers who seek self improvement get a distorted life instead Knowing anorexia from inside the recovered offer two watchwords on helping those who suffer One is negotiate to encourage compromise which can aid recovery where coercion fails The other is balance for the ill to pursue mind with body activities to defuse mind over body battles Telling Rhythm Amittai F. Aviram, 1994 Provides a postmodern theory of poetry that sees rhythm as its essential quality Intermediate Light Robert Alexander Houstoun, 1925 Aristotle's Gynecology Mariska Leunissen, 2025 In Aristotle's Gynecology Mariska Leunissen examines Aristotle's methods for the establishment of gynecological facts within his natural science arguing that many of the gynecological phenomena at stake such as menstruation and the nature of menstrual blood the role of female pleasure during sex and women's experiences of erotic dreams and their knowledge of conception and their experiences of false pregnancy and childbirth were mostly for socio cultural reasons not at all or not immediately accessible for a male natural scientific observer such as Aristotle Given this lack of immediate empirical evidence Aristotle employed alternative methods for the establishment of facts such as relying on signs and circumstantial empirical evidence or using analogical and probabilistic reasoning and relied heavily on existing expert reports such as mainly early medical sources but also sometimes verbal reports from women themselves Moreover Aristotle used a secondary standard for testing the results of this inquiry namely one which he originally developed for investigations into physically remote meteorological and cosmological phenomena that are not apparent to observation and according to which statements of facts are credible if they are ontologically possible Leunissen thus reconstructs

Aristotle's gynecology in the context of his commitments to empiricism and his scientific methods for the fact establishing phase of natural science and elucidates the role his concepts of evidence credibility and signs play in his natural scientific research. However, through its focus on Aristotle's use of gendered knowledge and his reconstruction of natural phenomena believed to be characteristic of women, Leunissen's book also offers a glimpse of the lived experiences and reproductive beliefs of women in Ancient Greece.

Overcoming Worries About Body Image and Eating Anne Stewart, Caz Nahman, Joanna Adams, 2024-07-11. Most teenagers worry about their body and appearance at some point and some may try to alter their eating in order to change their weight or shape. If you are spending a lot of time worrying about how you look or what you are eating, it can become overwhelming and have a big impact on your life. The aim of this book is to help you to understand a bit more about these worries, what you can do about them, and most importantly, how you can develop a healthy relationship with your body and with food. If these worries take hold, there is a risk of developing an eating disorder or becoming depressed. Eating disorders can have a huge and negative impact on your physical health, your emotional wellbeing, your relationships, and social life. They can take control of your mind and body, which makes it difficult to feel motivated to recover, and it can be a long and difficult journey to get back on track, so it's better to tackle these worries early on. Written by clinicians with many years of experience working in specialist eating disorder services for children and adolescents, this book follows an approach called cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), which is a really useful way of helping us to make sense of our experiences and overcome the difficulties that we face. CBT is an evidence-based approach, which means that lots of research has been done to evaluate it and show that it can be helpful. The book includes help and support on adolescent development, how we make sense of our experiences, healthy eating, and how to look after yourself during the teenage years. How you can stop body image and eating difficulties taking hold, including ideas for feeling good about yourself, dealing with stress, and managing social media. There is a chapter which focuses on issues for boys and young men. How to get help from family, friends, or professionals if you are struggling. There is also a chapter for parents, carers, and families with suggestions on how they can help. Overcoming for Teenagers is a series to support young people through common mental health issues during adolescence using scientific techniques that have been proven to work. Series editors: Associate Professor Polly Waite and Emeritus Professor Peter Cooper.

Through Forests of Every Color Joan Sutherland, 2022-06-21. Nautilus Book Award Winner. An intimate spiritual and literary journey exploring how Zen koans make us permeable to the joys and the anguish of this life and to the primordial mystery we glimpse behind the veil of the everyday. In Through Forests of Every Color, renowned Zen teacher Joan Sutherland reimagines the koan tradition with allegiance to the root spirit of the koans and to their profound potential for vivifying, subverting, and sanctifying our lives. Her decades of practicing with koans and of translating them from classical Chinese imbues this text with a warm familiarity, an ease still suffused with awe. Interlinked essays on koans as art, keeping company with koans, and walking the koan way intersperse with beautifully translated renditions of dozens of traditional Zen koans Sutherland also shares innovative koans culled from Western literature as well as teachings on how to create idiosyncratic koans or turning words from the circumstances of one's own life First honored is your yearning the preparation made on faith that there is something that will receive you if you make yourself ready writes Sutherland of the koan seeker Bathed attended to washed free of complications and then aspiring to the deepest kind of beauty receptive brave dedicated openhearted Already you've begun to look like the thing you're looking for

The Universe in the Rearview Mirror Dave Goldberg, 2014-06-24 A great read Goldberg is an excellent guide Mario Livio bestselling author of The Golden Ratio Physicist Dave Goldberg speeds across space time and everything in between showing that our elegant universe from the Higgs boson to antimatter to the most massive group of galaxies is shaped by hidden symmetries that have driven all our recent discoveries about the universe and all the ones to come Why is the sky dark at night If there is anti matter can there be anti people Why are past present and future our only options Saluting the brilliant but unsung female mathematician Emmy Noether as well as other giants of physics Goldberg answers these questions and more exuberantly demonstrating that symmetry is the big idea and the key to what lies ahead

The Allure of the Mirror Yanlong Guo, 2025-09-23 In Han China 202 BCE 220 CE few luxury objects were as widely coveted as bronze mirrors Typically circular and ranging from seven to thirty centimeters in diameter these mirrors were crafted from high tin bronze with highly reflective surfaces on the front and intricate designs and auspicious inscriptions on the reverse The Allure of the Mirror explores how and why these objects historically known as haowu fine things became so beloved throughout early imperial China Tracing their production and consumption from manufacture in imperial princely and private workshops to their roles in life and death Yanlong Guo uncovers the varied ways these seemingly trivial objects took on social and cultural significance Across social classes mirrors had a wide range of uses as status symbols personal tools romantic tokens family heirlooms auspicious amulets treasured gifts and funeral offerings Guo demonstrates how these fine things once exclusive to elites gradually became accessible to a wider segment of society Mirrors he argues connected people across the empire fostering a shared cultural community of aesthetic tastes and social values from royal courts to rural households Interdisciplinary and comprehensive The Allure of the Mirror offers fresh insights into the relationship among art society and ideology in the Han Empire revealing how decorative objects could bridge social divides and shape cultural identity

The Man Who Saved Geometry Siobhan Roberts, 2024-10-29 An illuminating biography of one of the greatest geometers of the twentieth century Driven by a profound love of shapes and symmetries Donald Coxeter 1907 2003 preserved the tradition of classical geometry when it was under attack by influential mathematicians who promoted a more algebraic and austere approach His essential contributions include the famed Coxeter groups and Coxeter diagrams tools developed through his deep understanding of mathematical symmetry The Man Who Saved Geometry tells the story of Coxeter's life and work placing him alongside history's greatest geometers from Pythagoras and Plato to Archimedes and Euclid and it reveals how Coxeter's boundless creativity reflects the
