Black Magic, Witchcraft and Occultism Sajal Nag, 2023-06-09 Black magic occult practices and witchcraft still evoke huge curiosity interest and amazement in the minds of people Although witchcraft in Europe has been a widely studied phenomenon black magic and occult are not yet a popular theme of academic research even though India is known as a land of magic tantra and occult The Indian State of Assam was historically feared as the land of Kamrup Kamakhya black magic witchcraft and occultic practices It was where different Tantric cults as well as other occult practices thrived The Khasi Hills are known for the practice of snake vampire worship The village of Mayong is the village where magic and occult is still practiced as a living tradition This book is one of the rarest collections where such practices are researched recorded and academically analyzed It is one of those collections where studies of all three practices of Black Magic Witchcraft and Occult are combined into one single book

The Nature of Entrustment Parker MacDonald Shipton, 2007-01-01 This groundbreaking book addresses issues of the keenest interest to anthropologists specialists on Africa and those concerned with international aid and development Drawing on extensive research among the Luo people in western Kenya and abroad over many years Parker Shipton provides an insightful general ethnography In particular he focuses closely on nonmonetary forms of exchange and entrustment moving beyond anthropology's traditional understanding of gifts loans and reciprocity He proposes a new view of the social and symbolic dimensions of economy over the full life course including transfers between generations He shows why the enduring cultural values and aspirations of East African people and others around the world complicate issues of credit debt and compensation The book examines how the Luo assess obligations to intimates and strangers including the dead and the not yet born Borrowing lending and serial passing along have ritual religious and emotional dimensions no less than economic ones Shipton shows and insight into these connections demands a broad rethinking of all international aid plans and programs

Witchcraft and a Life in the New South Africa Isak Arnold Niehaus, 2013 This biography casts new light on scholarly understandings of the connections between politics witchcraft and AIDS in South Africa

Understanding Religious Sacrifice Jeffrey Carter, 2003-03-31 This volume provides a thorough introduction to the major classic and modern writings dealing with religious sacrifice Collected here are twenty five influential selections each with a brief introduction addressing the overall framework and assumptions of its author As they present different theories and examples of sacrifice these selections also discuss important concepts in religious studies such as the origin of religion

totemism magic symbolism violence structuralism and ritual performance Students of comparative religion ritual studies the history of religions the anthropology of religion and theories of religion will particularly value the historical organization and thematic analyses presented in this collection

The Archaeology of Ancestors Hill/Hageman, Hageman, Jon B, 2016-03-23 Contributors to this landmark volume demonstrate that ancestor veneration was about much more than claiming property rights the spirits of the dead were central to domestic disputes displays of wealth and power and status relationships Case studies from China Africa Europe and Mesoamerica use the evidence of art architecture ritual and burial practices to explore the complex roles of ancestors in the past Including a comprehensive overview of nearly two hundred years of anthropological research The Archaeology of Ancestors reveals how and why societies remember and revere the dead Through analyses of human remains ritual deposits and historical documents contributors explain how ancestors were woven into the social fabric of the living

The Archaeology of People Alisdair Whittle, 2003-09-02 Alasdair Whittle's new work argues powerfully for the complexity and fluidity of life in the Neolithic through a combination of archaeological and anthropological case studies and current theoretical debate The book ranges from the sixth to the fourth millennium BC and from the Great Hungarian Plain central and western Europe and the Alpine foreland to parts of southern Britain Familiar terms such as individuals agency identity and structure are dealt with but Professor Whittle emphasises that they are too abstract to be truly useful Instead he highlights the multiple dimensions which constituted Neolithic existence the web of daily routines group and individual identities relations with animals and active but varied attitudes to the past The result is a vivid original and perceptive understanding of the early Neolithic which will offer insights to readers at every level
