Lyrical Interference:

Lyric Interventions Linda A. Kinnahan, 2005-05 Lyric Interventions explores linguistically innovative poetry by contemporary women in North America and Britain whose experiments give rise to fresh feminist readings of the lyric subject. The works discussed by Linda Kinnahan explore the lyric subject in relation to the social and I as a product of social discourse and as a conduit for change. Contributing to discussions of language-oriented poetics through its focus on women writers and feminist perspectives, this study of lyric experimentation brings attention to the cultural contexts of nation, gender, and race as they significantly shift the terms by which the experimental is produced, defined, and understood. This study focuses upon lyric intervention in distinct but related spheres as they link public and ideological norms of identity. Firstly, lyric innovations with visual and spatial realms of cultural practice and meaning, particularly as they naturalize ideologies of gender and race in North America and the post-colonial legacies of the Caribbean, are investigated in the works of Barbara Guest, Kathleen Fraser, Erica Hunt, and M. Nourbese Philip. Secondly, experimental engagements with nationalist rhetorics of identity, marking the works of Carol Ann Duffy, Denise Riley, Wendy Mulford, and Geraldine Monk, are explored in relation to contemporary evocations of self in Britain. And thirdly, in discussions of all of the poets but particularly accentuated in regard to Guest, Fraser, Riley, Mulford, and Monk, formal experimentation with the lyric I is considered through gendered encounters with critical and avant-garde discourses of poetics. Throughout the study, Kinnahan seeks to illuminate and challenge the ways in which visual and verbal constructs function to make readable the subjectivities historically supporting white male-centered power within the worlds of art poetry, social locations, or national policy. The potential of the feminist innovative lyric to generate linguistic surprise simultaneously with engaging risky strategies of social intervention lends force and significance to the public engagement of such poetic experimentation. This fresh energetic study will be of great interest to literary critics and women's studies scholars as well as poets on both sides of the Atlantic.

The Poetry of Charles Olson

Thomas F. Merrill, 1982 Charles Olson Robert Von Hallberg, 1978 Described as one of the most influential American literary figures of the mid-20th century and a near prophet of the Black Mountain School, Olson was highly regarded as both a theorist and a poet. Here is an examination of Olson's understanding of poetry that provides the framework needed for understanding his work.

Lyric as Comedy Calista McRae, 2020-10-15 A poet walks into a bar. In Lyric as Comedy, Calista McRae explores the unexpected comic opportunities within recent American poems about deeply personal, often embarrassing experiences. Lyric poems she finds can be surprising sites of a shifting unruly comedy, as seen in the work of John Berryman, Robert Lowell, A. R. Ammons, Terrance Hayes, Morgan Parker, Natalie Shapero, and Monica Youn. Lyric as Comedy draws out the ways in which key American poets have struggled with persistent expectations about what expressive poetry can and should do. McRae reveals how the modern lyric, rather than bestowing order on the poet's thoughts and emotions, can center on impropriety and confusion, formal breakage, and linguistic unruliness and self-observation and self-staging The close readings in Lyric as Comedy also provide new insight into the theory and aesthetics of comedy taking in the indirect glancing comic affordances of poetry In doing so McRae captures varieties of humor that do not align with traditional terms centering abjection and pleasure as facets of contemporary lyric practice Lyric and Liberalism in the Age of American Empire Hugh Foley, 2022-08-15 What is the difference between the I of a poem the lyric subject and the liberal subject of rights Lyric and Liberalism in the Age of American Empire uses this question to re examine the work of five major American poets changing our understanding of their writing and the field of post war American poetry Through extended readings of the work of Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell Amiri Baraka John Ashbery and Jorie Graham Hugh Foley shows how poets have imagined liberalism as a problem for poetry Foley s book offers a new approach to ongoing debates about the nature of lyric by demonstrating the entanglement of ideas about the lyric poem with the development of twentieth century liberal discussions of individuality Arguing that the nature of American empire in this period underpinned by the discourse of individual rights forced poets to reckon with this entanglement it demonstrates how this reckoning helped to shape poetry in the post war period By tracing the ways a lyric poem performs personhood and the ways that this person can be distinguished from the individual envisioned by post war liberalism Foley shows how each poet stages a critique of liberalism from inside the standpoint of lyric This book demonstrates the capacities of poetry for rethinking its own relation to history and politics providing a new perspective on a vital era of American poetry Rethinking Lyric Communities Irene Fantappiè, Francesco Giusti, Laura Scuriatti, 2024-10-28 In contemporary Western societies lyric poetry is often considered an elitist or solipsistic literary genre Yet a closer look at its history reveals that lyric has always been intertwined with the politics of community formation from the imagining of national and transnational discursive communities to the use of poetry in episodes of collective action protest and social resistance Poetic forms have circulated between languages and traditions from around the world and across time But how does lyric poetry address or even create communities and of what kinds This volume takes a global perspective to investigate poetic communities in dialogue with recent developments in lyric theory and concepts of community In doing so it explores both the political potentialities and the perils of lyric poetry Hyperscapes in the Poetry of Frank O'Hara Hazel Smith, 2000-01-01 Frank O Hara s poetry evokes a specific era and location New York in the fifties and early sixties This is a pre computer age of typewritten manuscripts small shops and lunch hours it is also an age of gay repression accelerating consumerism and race riots Hazel Smith suggests that the location and dislocation of the cityscape creates hyperscapes in the poetry of Frank O Hara The hyperscape is a postmodern site characterized by difference breaking down unified concepts of text city subject and art and remolding them into new textual subjective and political spaces This book theorizes the process of disruption and re figuration which constitutes the hyperscape and celebrates its radicality The End of the Mind DeSales Harrison, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Immanent Distance Bruce Bond, 2015-09-24 Explores the role of poetry as a transfigurative process A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive expository writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem

Languages of Liberation Walter B. Kalaidjian, 1989 The Lyric Voice in English Theology Elizabeth S. Dodd, 2023-09-21 In this book Elizabeth S Dodd traces the contours of a lyric theology through the lens of English lyric tradition She addresses the dominance of narrative and drama in contemporary theological aesthetics by drawing on recent developments in lyric theory Informed by the work of critics such as Jonathan Culler Dodd explores the significance of lyric for theological discourse Lyric is presented here as a short musical expressive and personal form that is also fragmentary embodied socially located and performative The main chapters address key moments in English lyric tradition This selective approach aims to expand the theological gaze beyond the monochromatic features of the traditional canon It covers Anglo Saxon hymns medieval lullaby carols early modern sonnets and the prophetic poetry of Romanticism but also Grime and hip hop performance poetry social media poetry and Geoffrey Hill

Contemporary Olson David Herd, 2016-05-16 As poet critic theorist and teacher Charles Olson extended the possibilities of modern writing From Call Me Ishmael his pioneering study of Herman Melville to his epic poetic project The Maximus Poems Olson probed the relation between language space and community Writing in the aftermath of the Second World War he provided radical resources for the re imagining of place and politics resources for collective thought and creative practice we are still learning how to use Re situating Olson s work in relation both to his own moment and to current concerns the essays assembled in Contemporary Olson provide a major re assessment of his place in postwar poetry and culture Through a series of contextualising chapters discussions of individual poems and reflections on Olson s legacy by leading international writers and critics the book presents a poet who still informs contemporary poetry whose thought and compositional innovations continue to provoke Remote as some of his fascinations must now seem Olson is shown nonetheless to offer a poetry and poetics that speaks clearly to our own fraught historical moment Contemporary Olson opens this major writer to new readings and new readers

Five Coimbra Poets Dom Dinis,Sá de Miranda,Antero de Quental,Camilo Pessanha,Fernando Assis Pacheco,2023-07-31 Five Coimbra Poets takes historical contingency the accident as a pretext that would seem to unify profoundly different poetical voices from diverse centuries Its chronological range is ample starting in late medieval Portugal with Dom Dinis and ending with Fernando Assis Pacheco in the last half of the 20th century To this historical contingency a contingency of choices is added an accident of choices A dual opportunity a dual purpose firstly to bring together certain poets who were either born or lived in Coimbra and who were touched in a way more or less asymmetrically more or less explicitly by the city by the surrounding countryside and the region secondly to offer up poets and poems some more canonical than others whose occasion here reflects a personal and subjective choice that is tailored towards both initiation and concision Dom Dinis and S de Miranda are joined by the two 19th century poets who most marked the memory of literature which the city keeps alive and which the poems themselves keep alive of the city Both Antero de Quental and Camilo Pessanha are in this sense crucial The lyrical intensity of landscape and cityscape is alive as well in Fernando Assis Pacheco who perhaps wrote the most penetrating and moving poems about Coimbra and its worlds which were those of his childhood adolescence and early manhood
