My Mystery Lady:

For the People and Lover's Lane T. Moody, 2012-10-19 As a perfect pairing of the journey of life and love For the People and Lovers Lane are grafted together to form one unique collection of lyric poems and short stories Written to expose the unspoken pains joys and uncertainties packaged with life the passages allow each reader to revisit their familiarities about love grief and recovery leaving the reader with a sense of wholeness and contentment To the misunderstood teen mother father wife and husband For the People is our story as it expresses the disappointments and trials that have dictated our decisions The feelings of loss friendships the memories that will forever linger as what ifs in our minds and the promise of success will forever unite us as a people This book was written For the People the human being that dwells in all of us despite being at times oppressed by our minds and shackled in our hearts This book is for you This book is for us When embarking on a journey we hope for smooth travels however as most have experienced journeys have obstacles Each time we overcome an obstacle motivation to continue on envelopes us pushing us to endure The pursuit of happiness is the largest obstacle in the journey of love as love does not always result in happiness and happiness does not always exist with love Lovers Lane takes you through the obstacles leading to the path of happiness As the second piece this has been the most promising work

Singing for Themselves Patricia Spence Rudden, 2009-03-26 Singing for Themselves Essays on Women in Popular Music is a fresh look at a topic that has attracted increasing interest in recent years In this collection scholars from a number of disciplines look at various artists and movements and come to some new conclusions about the ways in which female artists have contributed to the past four decades of pop rock blues and punk From new looks at major artists Etta James Laura Nyro and Patti Smith to later figures Ferron Björk and Melissa Etheridge these chapters suggest new ways to view and hear music that is already part of our culture Essays on the Indigo Girls Dixie Chicks and Destiny's Child prove that the girl groups tradition is alive and well but with additional new dimensions and a three essay section on Joan Jett and the Riot Grrrls phenomenon sheds new light on their implications for feminist artistic expression The final piece an annotated bibliography of academic writing on women in rock helps make this collection a useful addition to the library of students of popular music while the solid research and accessibility of the text make this a good choice for the general reader as well as the seasoned scholar If you think that adoration of certain pop music is a guilty pleasure not worthy of higher intellectual aspirations then Singing For Themselves offers absolution It's far from trivial to ponder the Tao of Canadian singer Ferron the classical allusions of Laura Nyro's lyrics the postfeminist booty shaking of Destiny's Child or the historical milieu that turned Jamesetta Hawkins into blues great Etta James Reading these essays made me want to go right back to the music feeling wiser yes but also validated in the desire to go as deep as any song or singer can take me Michele Kort author of Soul Picnic The Music and Passion of Laura Nyro and senior editor at Ms magazine I've read Singing for Themselves Essays on Women in Popular Music and am happy to provide an endorsement Singing for Themselves is a consistently interesting collection of new essays on women and popular music The collection is all the more welcome for being so current It mixes essays on recent phenomena such as electronic punk group Le Tigre and the Dixie Chicks stirring of political controversy with new perspectives on canonical figures like Patti Smith or Etta James The essays gathered here are written with clear commitments but all are marked by care and scholarly rigour I found the interdisciplinary breadth of Singing for Themselves refreshing new avenues for research are opened up here and new theoretical paradigms are explored Will Straw PhD Acting Director McGill Institute for the Study of Canada Associate Professor Department of Art History and Communication Studies Opening this book was like opening the door onto a surprise party Everyone I've ever wanted to meet was in there including myself Ferron
