Growing Up with a Schizophrenic Mother Margaret J. Brown,Doris Parker Roberts,2000-08-15 An estimated two to three million people in the United States today were raised by a schizophrenic parent Brown and Roberts offer a unique book based on interviews with over forty adult children of mothers diagnosed as schizophrenic Such topics as the isolation their family felt their chaotic home environments their present relationships with their mothers and the lost potential of mother and child are covered Their stories are fascinating and provide important information to both the mental health community and the lay public The offspring have been described as having higher rates of increased aggressivity and sibling conflict but often their circumstances strengthened these children and contributed to artistic and creative talents resiliency and high achievements The authors provide an overview of schizophrenia behaviors of the affected parent and the marital relationship of the patient and her non schizophrenic spouse As adults the respondents now share their grievances about the psychological community what they needed and did not get Brown and Roberts then present suggestions for treatment of affected children aimed at psychiatrists psychologists social workers counselors and health care providers Remaking the Heartland Robert Wuthnow,2010-12-28 The social transformation of the American Midwest in the postwar era For many Americans the Midwest is a vast unknown In Remaking the Heartland Robert Wuthnow sets out to rectify this He shows how the region has undergone extraordinary social transformations over the past half century and proven itself surprisingly resilient in the face of such hardships as the Great Depression and the movement of residents to other parts of the country He examines the heartland s reinvention throughout the decades and traces the social and economic factors that have helped it to survive and prosper Wuthnow points to the critical strength of the region s social institutions established between 1870 and 1950 the market towns farmsteads one room schoolhouses townships rural cooperatives and manufacturing centers that have adapted with the changing times He focuses on farmers struggles to recover from the Great Depression well into the 1950s the cultural redefinition and modernization of the region s image that occurred during the 1950s and 1960s the growth of secondary and higher education the decline of small towns the redeployment of agribusiness and the rapid expansion of edge cities Drawing his arguments from extensive interviews and evidence from the towns and counties of the Midwest Wuthnow provides a unique perspective as both an objective observer and someone who grew up there Remaking the Heartland offers an accessible look at the humble yet strong foundations that have allowed the region to endure undiminished Dogs in the Sun D. Nyamndi,2009-09-15 This compelling narrative pits the legacies of two men in the village of Nwemba Winjala the Crude yardman to the English surveyor Pete Harrington kills the latter s favourite animal the big monkey called Stirrup and runs to his village Sama Gakoh washerman to Harrington also returns home when his services are terminated for age reasons Both hold clashing views of the white man They die shortly after their return but their sons pick up and sustain their conflicting philosophies The drama culminates in the fishing contest where the village chief Ndelu takes an unprecedented decision charged with meaning and wisdom The action is given piquancy by a strong undercurrent of human passion that flies in the face so to speak of artifices that divide and alienate We are dealing here with a profound allegory that brings the classical stereotypes into pointed and hopefully final disrepute Scarr Stories - Tales from the Healed Side of Brokenness Laura Brown, Monica Allen, Emily Blackmon, Lisa "LJ" Crawford, Donna Green, Colin Louis, Sharifa Louis, Cheryl A.
