Honorable Mention Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies Modern Language Association
Twenty first century philosophy has been drawn into a false opposition between speculation and critique Nathan Brown shows that the key to overcoming this antinomy is a re engagement with the relation between rationalism and empiricism If Kant's transcendental philosophy attempted to displace the opposing priorities of those orientations any speculative critique of Kant will have to re open and consider anew the conflict and complementarity of reason and experience Rationalist Empiricism shows that the capacity of reason and experience to extend and yet delimit each other has always been at the core of philosophy and science Coordinating their discrepant powers Brown argues is what enables speculation to move forward in concert with critique Sweeping across ancient modern and contemporary philosophy as well as political theory science and art Brown engages with such major thinkers as Plato Descartes Hume Hegel Marx Heidegger Bachelard Althusser Badiou and Meillassoux He also shows how the concepts he develops illuminate recent projects in the science of measurement and experimental digital photography With conceptual originality and argumentative precision Rationalist Empiricism reconfigures the history and the future of philosophy politics and aesthetics In the Mind But Not From There Gean Moreno, 2019-07-16 Artists and critics explore the concept of Real Abstraction to help understand contemporary cultural production In the Mind But Not From There Real Abstraction and Contemporary Art considers how the Marxian concept of Real Abstraction originally developed by Alfred Sohn Rethel and recently updated by Alberto Toscano might help to define the economic social political and cultural complexities of our contemporary moment In doing so this volume brings together noted contemporary artists literary critics curators historians and social theorists who connect the concept of Real Abstraction with contemporary cultural production Theoretical and artistic contributions from Benjamin Noys Paul Chan Joao Enxuto and Erica Love Marina Vishmidt Sven L ticken and many others help to map out the relationship between political economy and artistic production in the realm of contemporary globalized cultural exchange This anthology places economic and social analyses alongside creative projects and visual essays to consider the many angles of contemporary art and how inquiry into the the production of abstraction through material and social processes can be used to better understand and hopefully change the conditions under which art is made seen and circulated today Published in collaboration with NAME publications The Lure of Whitehead Nicholas Gaskill, A. J. Nocek, 2014-10-01 Once largely ignored the speculative philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead has assumed a new prominence in contemporary theory across the humanities and social sciences Philosophers and artists literary critics and social theorists anthropologists and computer scientists have all embraced Whitehead's thought extending it through inquiries into the nature of life the problem of consciousness and the ontology of objects as well as into experiments in education and digital media The Lure of Whitehead offers readers not only a comprehensive introduction to Whitehead's philosophy but also a demonstration of how his work advances our emerging understanding of life in the posthuman epoch Contributors Jeffrey A Bell Southeastern Louisiana U Nathan Brown U of California Davis Peter Canning Didier Debaise Free U of Brussels Roland Faber Claremont Lincoln U Michael Halewood U of Essex Graham Harman American U in Cairo Bruno Latour Sciences Po Paris Erin Manning Concordia U Montreal Steven Meyer Washington U Luciana Parisi U of London Keith Robinson U of Arkansas at Little Rock Isabelle Stengers Free U of Brussels James Williams U of Dundee Nothing is Lost, Nothing is Created, Everything is Transformed Josée Bélisle, 2008 Overvejende canadiske kunstnere men enkelte andre ogs The Cambridge Handbook of Language Contact Salikoko S.
