Oshita,2007-04-20 In Conflict Management in Nigeria Issues and Challenges Dr Oshita O Oshita one of the leading peace researchers in Nigeria interrogates a number of cross cutting issues and challenges that may be encountered in the process of engaging with conflict mitigation in Nigeria He explores the complex issues involved just as he analyses the challenges arising from the political economy of conflict management in Nigeria from historical and contemporary perspectives

Presidential Elections in Nigeria's Fourth Republic Babayo Sule,Usman Sambo,2024-03-07 This book provides a uniquely detailed analysis of presidential elections in Nigeria s Fourth Republic The authors explore the changing dynamics of voting patterns religious politics politicians behaviour and the broader political system to offer new insights into presidential systems in Africa and beyond In doing so they address an often neglected area of political science and cast light on the political challenges facing one of the world s largest democracies The book s comprehensive coverage of Nigerian presidential elections and the lessons they hold for developing countries across the globe is a valuable resource for researchers students international institutions and non governmental organisations

Nigerian Foreign Policy 60 Years After Independence Usman A. Tar,Sharkdam Wapmuk,2023-01-30 This book covers critical issues in Nigeria s external relations since 1960 As an independent nation Nigeria has stood out as the most populous black country in the world and contributed immensely to the search for solutions to pressing international issues notably in Africa affairs Nigeria has also participated actively in global affairs and used the platform of international organisation to advance her national interests cognisant also of its regional and global obligations and responsibilities Contributors to this thought provoking book make a strong case for Nigeria to press for a foreign policy that puts Nigerian people at the centre One of the strong points also emanating from the contributors of this book is the imperative for Nigeria to address domestic challenges that continue to impinge on the country's external image

Nigeria Julius Ihonvbere, 2024-11-01 Nigeria is in a long standing crisis Military rule has suffocated civil society and has entrenched a culture of repression corruption and official irresponsibility The reign of Ibrahim Babangida has resulted in near total economic disaster for the country The situation is so bad as Julius Ihonvbere shows that Nigerians are now saying that the days of colonialism were better In this major new study Ihonvbere searches out the sources of Nigeria's predicament He finds them in the country's historical experience and the consequences of that experience since gaining political independence Nigeria has become a society in which its citizens live in fear and its youth emigrate to other countries It is now impossible to survive in the country without belonging to a certain religion living in a particular region having connections with top military officers and being involved with some form of corruption Even involvement in drug pushing or extrajudicial murder is no longer considered a crime but a circumstance of life Such conditions have encouraged the emergence of several popular organizations New alliances of students workers women youths intellectuals professionals and the unemployed transcend ethnic regional and religious differences For the author it is at this emerging level of struggle and interaction that the future of Nigeria lies This work examines several critical but often overlooked or underresearched aspects of Nigeria's political economy Ihonvbere analyzes in detail Nigeria's foreign policy its economic crisis the military the decay of its educational system and democratization He pays particular attention to the paradoxical connection between IMF World Bank supervised structural adjustment and the struggle for democracy His book will be of interest to experts in socioeconomic development foreign policy analysts students of military science and scholars of African politics and history

Problems and Prospects of Sustaining Democracy in Nigeria Bamidele A. Ojo, 2001 The past few years have been very traumatic ones for many Nigerians With the exception of those in power or close to the seat of power the changes of 1998 were a welcome relief given the tyranny and repression that the country had suffered under General Abacha With many people in prison and more in exile the death of Abacha was received with a sigh of relief Many observers have seen the resilience that has come to signify the strength and potential of this once giant of Africa as well as the destruction and the socio political and economic decay of the past decades The Nigerian people have endured the exploitation of their rights due to the lack of democratic leadership and with this in mind they have been called to attention to fight for their country

Africa's First Peacekeeping Operation Terry M. Mays, 2002-05-30 In 1981 the Organization of African Unity OAU mandated and fielded the first regional peacekeeping operation since the Arab League's mission in Kuwait 20 years earlier Battalion sized contingents from Nigeria Senegal and Zaire were joined by smaller observer contingents from other OAU members in an effort to provide a buffer zone between the two main factions in the Chadian civil war Mays opens his analysis by providing an overview of the concept of peacekeeping. Several definitions are offered to help distinguish between the various types of peace operations. After examining the concept, hegemon he looks at the ways regional and subregional hegemonies utilize peacekeeping operations as foreign policy tools as they protect their interests. Mays argues that Nigeria as a West African hegemon served as the moving force behind the mandating and fielding of the OAU peacekeeping mission in Chad. Rather than being purely humanitarian in nature, Nigeria's motivation included the removal of French and later Libyan soldiers from a weak state on its border. However, Nigeria could not perform the task alone. France and the United States were instrumental as well in the mandating and fielding process. French and American interests stemmed from concern over Libyan motives in Chad. Nigeria kept the effort to mandate the peacekeeping operation alive for two years. France proved to be the stimulus behind persuading the Chadian government to accept the deployment of OAU peacekeepers and prompting the Senegalese to contribute a battalion to the mission. The United States contributed by keeping France and Nigeria focused on a peacekeeping solution and helping persuade Zaire to join the mission. Mays offers the first comprehensive examination of the OAU peacekeeping mission and reviews the political and military organization of the force as well as its deployment, redeployment, plans, logistics, and operations between the Chadian factions. Utilizing an extensive collection of resources including interviews with participants, diplomats, and government documents, he provides a detailed examination of every meeting, conference between 1979 and 1981 that discussed a peacekeeping option for Chad. Factors of success in traditional peacekeeping operations are applied to the OAU mission, and he concludes by reviewing the impact of the 1981-1982 OAU operation on current African peacekeeping trends. An invaluable analysis for scholars, students, and other researchers involved with peacekeeping, international relations, and African studies.

Nigerian Foreign Policy Timothy M. Shaw, Olajide Aluko, 1983-06-18 Out of Africa: Fashola-Reinventing Servant Leadership to Engender Nigeria's Transformation John M. O. Ekundayo PhD, 2013-04-30 This book focuses on the Servant Leadership practice as exemplified by Governor Babatunde Raji Fashola of Lagos State, Nigeria. Lagos State is the most populated, about 21 million people in Nigeria. Transformational strides have been witnessed by the people of Lagos State, which are showcased in this book. Dr. Ekundayo John did his PhD on the Governor's leadership style, conducting both quantitative and qualitative research studies spanning three years. The outcome is the production of this book.

Neorealism Versus Strategic Culture John Glenn, 2018-01-18 The debate between Neorealists and Strategic Culturalists centres on whether it is possible to explain, predict, state behaviour without taking into account the particular characteristics of the state, such as its historical experiences, geographical context, and cultural constitution. This informative debate is encapsulated in the first section of the book, which considers the theoretical issues raised by both Neorealism and Strategic Culture. These issues are then explored in the second section by assessing their relevance to six country case studies: Australia, Germany, India, Japan, Nigeria, and Russia.

Nigeria-United States Relations, 1960-2016 Olayiwola Abegunrin, 2018-10-24 This book examines relations between Nigeria and the United States analyzing the levels of collaboration and interaction between the two countries since Nigerian independence in 1960 The central objective of the volume is to understand how American policy makers have thought about and acted toward Nigeria from the time she achieved statehood in 1960 until the end of Obama Administration There is huge potential in Nigeria the country has the largest population in Africa and is well endowed in terms of both human and natural resources Additionally it has the largest economy and biggest market on the continent the largest concentration of Black population in the world a burgeoning and vibrant youthful population and a tradition of international engagement since its independence With a population of over 170 million and as America s largest trading partner in Africa Nigeria is a key power in Africa and a major player in world affairs Nigeria s position in the twenty first century offers the possibility for a positive new chapter in Nigeria United States relations Securing Africa Toyin Falola, Charles Thomas, 2013-10-30 Africa has been and currently is the site of numerous conflicts and crises Authors previously wrote of these as specifically African problems or the problems of Europeans in Africa but newer scholarship on other aspects of Africa has come to stress the interconnectness of Africa and the wider world Still it has often been limited to studies of isolated instances within African countries with little to no connection to greater patterns of international power and violence This volume explores the historical and present local and international dimensions of the myriad security crises in Africa from the role of international relations during liberation to multination efforts against piracy Liberia's Civil War Adekeye Adebajo, 2002 This text aims to unravel the tangled web of the conflict by addressing questions including why did Nigeria intervene in Liberia and remain committed throughout the seven year civil war and to what extent was ECOMOG s intervention shaped by Nigeria s hegemonic aspirations Nation-states and the Challenges of Regional Integration in West Africa Yomi Akinyeye, 2010 Since their independence Africa states West in particular have felt a need for regional integration in order to solve their development problems Various aspects of Nigeria s experience in regional integration are there examined These include the advocacy of chambers of commerce for common currencies among members of the West African Monetary Zone security implications of defense pacts between some francophone member countries and France and grassroots participation to solve problems concerning borders and borderlands Finally facilitators and obstacles of regional integration are examined From Cape to Congo Mwesiga Laurent Baregu, Chris Landsberg, 2003 From the ongoing war in Angola to sporadic instability in Zimbabwe and Lesotho to the conflict in Congo to issues of land reform and the ravages of AIDS southern Africa faces varied and complex threats to its peace and security The authors of From Cape to Congo assess the region s major security challenges as well as the roles of local regional and external actors in managing them Their theoretically informed but practical approach encompasses the political economic and military arenas Regional Economic Communities and Peacebuilding in Africa Victor Adetula, Redie Bereketeab, Cyril Obi, 2020-12-30 This book outlines challenges to the effective operation of regional economic communities RECs with regards to peacebuilding in Africa

Critically examining these issues from an interdisciplinary perspective with a focus on comparative analysis of the status role and performances of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and Intergovernmental Authority on Development IGAD it examines particular constraints to their effective participation in regional initiatives Focussing on inadequate technical capabilities the complicity of state and non state actors in conflicts within a region the domestic politics of member states it additionally addresses related theories and practices of peacekeeping security development and the peacebuilding nexus It also engages provisioning regionalism and regional peacekeeping interventions the legal and institutional framework of RECs and civil society and peacebuilding Fundamentally the book asks how effective the alliances and partnerships are in promoting regional peace and security and how much they are compromised by the intervention of external powers and actors exploring new ideas and actions that may strengthen capacities to address the peacebuilding challenges on the continent effectively This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics and studies peace and security studies regionalism studies policy practitioners in the field of African peacebuilding and more broadly to international relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003093695> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Nigeria-South Africa Relations and Regional Hegemonic Competence Oluwaseun Tella, 2018-11-27 This book examines the relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their implications for regional influence across the African continent With the largest and third largest economies in the region and a historical status as the major peacemakers on the continent it is often argued that Africa's fate is directly linked to the success or failure of these regional powers While there is widespread reference to each state's capabilities and regional influence in the extant literature little analysis is offered on relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their impact on regional governance and provision of public goods on the continent This book attempts to fill the gap by engaging issues such as the hegemonic competence of the states their credentials for a permanent seat at the UNSC their efforts towards regional integration and their efforts towards combating the dark side of globalization including climate change drug trafficking and xenophobia It also engages a gender perspective to these states relations as well as their experiences of transitional justice Providing an in depth comparative analysis of the two so called African powerhouses this volume will be of interest to policy makers academics and students interested in Nigeria and South Africa's foreign policy regional powerhood and the African peace security and development agenda
