

Platinum Rule

VS

Golden Rule

Understand and respect others' preferences.

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Flexible, adjusts to each individual.

Uniform, applied the same to everyone.

Everyone has different preferences.

Everyone wants to be treated the same way.

Cross-cultural communication, diverse teams.

Common situations, building basic relationships.

More effective, builds rapport.

Easy to understand, easy to implement.

Requires effort to understand others' preferences.

May not be effective in all situations.

Working in Indian Country Larry D. Keown, 2010 What is the First Step in Developing a Successful Business Relationship with any American Indian Tribe Understanding that relationships come first and business comes second That pearl of wisdom and others is what you will take away from Working in Indian Country It is the definitive work on how to successfully build trust and long term working relationships with tribal leaders Born out of nearly twenty years of working with American Indian tribes both as a federal official and as a seminar facilitator Larry Keown's Working in Indian Country lays a foundation for relationship building based on redefining your leadership role through understanding history trust respect honor and tribal sovereignty There is little doubt you will experience a paradigm shift in how you currently think about working with American Indian Tribes Whether you are a government or corporate official work for a non profit organization or merely have a personal interest about Working in Indian Country this book will serve as your bible and should always be at arms length in your personal library Every organization dealing with American Indian tribes should have a line of top management people who are familiar with the contents of this book Jeff Sanders Chair Dept of Sociology et al Montana State University Billings

The Platinum Rule Tony Alessandra, Michael J. O'Connor, 2008-12-02 In this entertaining and thought provoking book Tony Alessandra and Michael O Connor argue that the Golden Rule is not always the best way to approach people Rather they propose the Platinum Rule Do unto others as they'd like done unto them In other words find out what makes people tick and go from there

Soulsunami Leonard Sweet, 2009-10-14 Road rage animal rights cyberporn crystal healing doctor assisted suicide everywhere we look the signs all tell us we're living in a post Christian culture Or are we Leonard Sweet cultural historian preacher futurist creatologist and preeminent thinker firmly believes we live today in a pre Christian society fraught with challenges dangers critical choices and above all tremendous potential for the church The outcome will depend on our response to today's flood of religious pluralism that threatens to sweep us away What will we do Deny the reality of the incoming surge Hunker in the bunker hermetically sealing ourselves in an increasingly out of touch church counterculture Or will we boldly hoist our sails and looking to God for guidance and strength move with confidence and purpose over the waves

SoulTsunami is a fascinating even mind numbing look at the implications of our changing world for the church in the 21st century With uncanny wisdom and trademark wit Leonard Sweet explores ten key futuribles precision guesses that fall short of predictions expanding on and relating topics ranging from the reentry of theism and spiritual longing in contemporary society to the impact of modern technology to the global renaissance to models for the church to reach people caught in the cultural maelstrom Here are eye opening perspectives on the church from within and from without from its surrounding society Lively well written and provocative SoulTsunami is a clarion call for Christians to remove their tunnel vision glasses and take a good look at the swelling postmodern flood It also is a voice of encouragement affirming the church in its role as God s lifeboat And it is a passionate prophetic guide pointing the way to reach a world swept out to sea
